AWARDS & GRANTS

AAAS Awards
Each year AASL offers more than $80,000 in awards and grants. AASL's electronic submission database can be accessed on the AASL website, www.ala.org/aasl/awards. The deadline for most awards and grants is February 1.

Beyond Words
The Dollar General School Library Relief Fund provides grants to public schools in the states served by Dollar General whose school library program has been affected by a disaster. To apply, visit www.ala.org/aasl/awards.

National School Library Program of the Year Award
The NSLPY Award, guided by AASL's Empowering Learners: Guidelines for School Library Programs, recognizes exemplary school library programs that are fully integrated into the school's curriculum. The winning program receives a $10,000 prize donated by Follett. The deadline for the NSLPY Award is January 1. To apply, visit www.ala.org/aasl/awards.

COMMUNITY

To keep AASL members informed about urgent news, programs, and services in a timely manner, we must rely on electronic communication. We encourage all AASL members to regularly visit the AASL website at www.aasl.org.

AASLForum discussion list
AASL offers the AASL Members Forum (AASLForum) to all its personal members. Members can post inquiries and participate in discussion via the AASLForum list. Visit www.ala.org/aasl/aaslforum.

AASL For the Record
Distributed bi-annually, AASL leadership shares with members recent happenings in the work of the association. This e-newsletter is sent to membership following ALA Midwinter Meeting and ALA Annual Conference.

Knowledge Quest Website
The Knowledge Quest website is the vehicle for school librarians to transform learning. KQ offers breaking news, inspired blogs, and passionate conversations, developing insightful professionals and stronger communities. It is the companion site for the Knowledge Quest Magazine. Visit the Knowledge Quest website at knowledgequest.aasl.org.

AASL Social Media
Network with other school librarians and stay in touch with important things happening at AASL. Follow AASL on your preferred social media outlet.

- Facebook - www.facebook.com/aaslala
- Twitter - www.twitter.com/aaslala
- Pinterest - www.pinterest.com/aaslala

ALA Connect – AASL Division Community
Join the discussion, provide feedback to AASL leadership and keep up-to-date on AASL and school librarian events and interests in the AASL community on ALA Connect at connect.ala.org/aasl. Additionally, connect with other new members in the new members discussion thread at connect.ala.org/node/18/og/forum. Find AAL-created tutorials to help you navigate the community at www.ala.org/aasl/alacnecttutorials.

AASL Standards

National School Library Standards
The new National School Library Standards for Learners, School Librarians, and School Libraries reflect an evolution of AASL learning standards and program guidelines, now referred to as “Standards” and framed within a single text. These standards build on philosophical foundations and familiar elements while featuring a new streamlined and integrated standards framework, ensuring that standards-related activities are mutually reinforcing for learners, school librarians, and school libraries.

ALA Online Store | www.alastore.ala.org/aasl
- National School Library Standards for Learners, School Librarians, and School Libraries
- AASL Standards Framework for Learners
- AASL Standards Mobile App

AASL Standards Web Portal
A hub for accessing implementation tools, assistance, and communities, the AASL Standards web portal provides professionals and stakeholders multiple entry points into the National School Library Standards. Access support and connect with a vibrant community of professionals at standards.aasl.org.

Best Apps and Websites for Teaching & Learning
The Best Apps for Teaching & Learning honor resources of exceptional value for inquiry-based teaching and learning as embodied in the AASL Standards, and foster the qualities of innovation, creativity, active participation, and collaboration. Recognized apps and websites are user friendly and encourage a community of learners to explore and discover.

Updated annually, the “Best Lists” are based on feedback and nominations from AASL members and vetted by volunteer committees. The new lists are released each June. School librarians can nominate their most-used apps and websites at www.ala.org/aasl/standards-guidelines/best.

Common Core Crosswalk
The Common Core Crosswalk helps school librarians compare and align AASL’s Standards for the 21st-Century Learner with the Common Core State Standards. For more information, visit www.ala.org/aasl/commoncorecrosswalk.

Issues & Advocacy
Visit www.ala.org/aasl/advocacy for more AASL advocacy information and resources for school libraries.

School Libraries Transform Learning
This new digital magazine produced by AASL in partnership with American Libraries, is designed to be shared with parents, colleagues, administration, and policymakers. Available electronically or as a PDF download, this tool can open the door to discussions on the multiple ways school libraries transform learning. The magazine includes an AASL infographic on digital literacy. Visit www.ala.org/aasl/transforming.

School Library Programs Improve Student Learning
School Library Programs Improve Student Learning is a series of advocacy brochures designed to help school librarians generate and guide discussion with stakeholder groups in the school library community, including administrators, policymakers, parents, and teachers. To download these brochures or purchase full-color packets, visit www.ala.org/aasl/advocacybrochures.
Washington Office Information
Lobbying efforts by ALA’s Washington Office ensure school librarians are included in educational initiatives, funding and legislation. Visit www.ala.org/ala/aboutala/offices/wp to get up-to-date information on key legislation that affects school libraries.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

AASL @ ALA Conferences
AASL maintains a presence at the ALA Midwinter Meeting and ALA Annual Conference. For AASL events, visit www.ala.org/aasl/conferences.

AASL National Conference & Exhibition
The 2019 AASL National Conference & Exhibition—the only national conference devoted solely to the needs of school librarians—from November 14–16, 2019, in Louisville, Kentucky, offers robust educational opportunities, high-profile speakers, numerous authors, stimulating events, and various opportunities for networking and sharing! All programming in Louisville will be rooted in the new AASL Standards. Whether you are a learner or a presenter (or both!), this will be an opportunity not to miss.

AASL eAcademy
AASL offers a variety of 4- and 6-week online courses designed to create leaders. All courses are asynchronous, Moodle-based courses developed with the busy professional in mind. To check course availability, visit www.ala.org/aasl/eacademy.

eCOLLAB | Your eLearning Laboratory
eCOLLAB | Your eLearning Laboratory: Content, Collaboration, Community—provided as a feature of AASL membership—is a central repository of webinars, podcasts and resources from AASL professional development events. Manage your access to eCOLLAB resources, including the latest issue of Knowledge Quest, on your time and at your pace. New content will continue to migrate to the repository, keeping your eLearning fresh and focused on topics facing the profession today. To begin connecting with others in the eLearning community, view newly added resources, or sign up for upcoming webinars visit ecollab.aasl.org. Sign in using your ALA-provided member login.

Licensed Institutes
Looking for an educational workshop to offer school librarians in your district or state? AASL is pleased to offer a series of AASL Licensed Institutes—workshops available for nationwide use throughout the profession. For more information, visit www.ala.org/aasl/licensedinstitutes.

PUBLICATIONS & JOURNALS

AASL Publications
AASL offers a rich variety of publications on professional development topics essential to school librarians everywhere. A catalog of AASL professional publications is available at www.ala.org/aasl/booksproducts. You can order AASL products in the ALA Store at www.alastore.ala.org/aasl, or call 800-545-2433, ext. 4382 to request a publications order form by mail.

Knowledge Quest
Published bimonthly, September through June, Knowledge Quest print magazine articles address the integration of theory and practice in school librarianship, and new developments in education, learning theory and relevant disciplines. For issue previews, highlights, and exclusive member features, visit the companion website at knowledgequest.aasl.org.

KQ Express
All members with a valid email address in our member database will receive KQ Express, a monthly e-mail newsletter that features brief summaries of the latest school library news, along with links to more in-depth content. Archived issues are available for AASL members at www.aloaaslpubs/KQExpress.

School Library Research
SLR is an online journal that promotes and publishes high quality original research concerning the management, implementation and evaluation of school library programs. The only open-access research journal dedicated solely to school library research, SLR also emphasizes research on instructional theory, teaching methods and critical issues relevant to school library media. For more information visit www.aloaasl/slr.

TOOLS & RESOURCES
Find AASL task force reports, action briefs, infographics, research and statistics, white papers, and more at www.ala.org/aasl/advocacy/resources.

AASL Toolkits
Access toolkits on the AASL website at www.ala.org/aasl/toolkits.

- Common Core State Standards Implementation Assistance Toolkit—a guide to understanding the CCSS and collaborating with classroom teachers using action plans.
- Common Core State Standards Action Toolkit for Public Librarians—prepared by a joint task force comprised of AASL, ALSC, and YALSA members.
- Crisis Toolkit—designed to assist you as you build meaningful and effective support for saving your program.
- Learning Standards & Program Guidelines Implementation Toolkit—designed to help building-level school librarians implement the new AASL learning standards and program guidelines in their school library by focusing on small segments.
- Parent Advocate Toolkit—designed to help school librarians gain parent support in their programs.
- NEW! Resource Guide for Underserved Student Populations—resources to aid school librarians working with students in five underserved populations.
- NEW! Pre-Service Toolkit for Principals and Teachers—designed to help to educate new and future principals and teachers about the significant role that quality library programs can play in student learning.
- School Librarian’s Role in Reading Toolkit—offers resources to help school librarians partner with other educators to elevate student reading development and ensure the SL role in reading.
- School Library Program Health and Wellness Toolkit—provides resources to help you build stakeholder support and true advocacy.

- Toolkit for Promoting School Library Programs—contains strategies, practical tips and key messages school librarians can use to create purposeful and varied communications.

Position Statements
Position Statements are adopted by the AASL Board of Directors to state the association’s position on issues related to the school library profession, practice, policy, and professional development. Visit www.ala.org/aasl/positionstatements.
VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Committees & Task Forces
AASL personal members are eligible to serve on AASL committees. Visit www.ala.org/aasl/committees to view a list of currently active committees and task forces. To volunteer, visit www.ala.org/aasl/getinvolved and fill out the online volunteer form to help us match you up with the right opportunity.

Sections
AASL maintains three member sections that represent a special field of activity within the school library profession and provide a means for discussion of and action on issues relating to each section.
- Educators of School Librarians Section (ESLS) | www.ala.org/aasl/esls
- Independent Schools Section (ISS) | www.ala.org/aasl/iss
- Supervisors Section (SPVS) | www.ala.org/aasl/spvs

Special Interest Groups
Membership in a SIG is open to all AASL members who are interested in the common concerns of that group.
- Retirees Special Interest Group | connect.ala.org/node/157745
- Students Special Interest Group | connect.ala.org/node/184925

Author & Editor Guidelines
Would you like to write for AASL? Knowledge Quest, School Library Research (SLR), and AASL Publications (print and e-book) seek authors and editors of manuscripts, articles or research papers for publication. Contact AASL staff for publishing calendars and more information on current and upcoming topics. Author guidelines and proposal forms are available at www.ala.org/aasl/getinvolved.

Presenter Guidelines
AASL is seeking presenters for online learning courses, webinars, podcasts, chat sessions and various other learning formats. Requests for proposals are available at www.ala.org/ala/aasl/rfp. Or develop and submit your own proposal at www.ala.org/aasl/getinvolved.

Short-Term Projects
AASL has many opportunities for members to participate in the work of the association and give back to the community through short-term projects. To submit your specialties and interest, visit www.ala.org/aasl/getinvolved.

ALA STAFF DIRECTORY
The most current version of this staff directory is available at www.ala.org/aasl/about/staff.

Executive Director
Sylvia Knight Norton, 312-280-4388, snorton@ala.org

Deputy Executive Director
Allison Cline, 312-280-4385, acline@ala.org

Program Coordinator, Governance & Finance
Shannon Carter, 312-280-4381, scarter@ala.org

Manager, Communications
Stephanie Book, 312-280-4389, sbook@ala.org

Manager/Editor Journals
Meg Featheringham, 312-280-1396, mfeatheringham@ala.org

Manager, Web Communications
Jennifer Habley, 312-280-4383, jhabley@ala.org

Meetings Manager
Melissa Jacobsen, 312-280-1393, mjacobsen@ala.org

Conference & Membership Assistant
Anne Weglewski, 312-280-4382, aweglewski@ala.org

ALA CUSTOMER SERVICE CENTER
You can use the ALA Online Customer Service Center (cs.ala.org) to update your member information and to register for ALA conferences and meetings. ALA Customer Service can also be contacted toll-free at 800-545-2433 then select menu option 5.

American Association of School Librarians
50 E. Huron, Chicago, IL 60611
Toll-free: 800-545-2433, ext. 4382
Direct: 312-280-4382
Fax: 312-280-5276
E-mail: aasl@ala.org
Web site: www.aasl.org