FEATURES

10  Releasing Your Inner Leader
   Spinning 21st-Century Evaluations and Professional Development into Stronger School Relationships
   Carolyn Jo Starkey

14  Rocking Your Library World
   Strategies for Success in a Tough Economy
   Michelle Luhtala

20  Innovative Professional Development
   Expanding Your Professional Learning Network
   Lisa Perez

24  Here Comes the Future
   Information is the Building Block for Learning
   Delia Neuman

30  These Aren’t Your Father’s Funny Papers
   The New World of Digital Graphic Novels
   Heather Moorefield-Lang & Karen Gavigan

36  Letting Students Use Web 2.0 Tools to Hook One Another On Reading
   Zorana Ercegovac

40  Deploying E-Readers Without Buying E-Books
   One School’s Emphasis on the Public Domain
   Wendy Stephens

44  The Future of Multicultural Youth Literature
   Donna L. Gilton

48  Postsecondary Assistance
   A Research Project Helps Immigrant Students Plan Their Education Futures
   Sung Un Kim

54  Can-Do Spirit
   Facing the Challenges of Budget Cuts
   Buffy Edwards

58  Now is the Time
   Embrace Communication Media and Data Use
   Tom Woodward

62  Privacy and E-Books
   Theresa Chmara

66  Competitive Advantage
   21st-Century Skills Contest Inspires Collaboration and Leadership
   Lauren Mabry

72  Weaving a Virtual Story—Creating Book Trailers 101
   Naomi Bates
“Through promotion of the school librarian as a standards-based and standards-evaluated instructional position, school librarians can ensure their classification as a valued education profession.”

Releasing Your Inner Leader — pg 10

COLUMNS

77  CBC Column
Thinking Outside the Cover
Pendred Noyce

80  Presidential Statements
AASL 2012 Presidential Candidate Statements
Ty Burns & Gail Dickinson

DEPARTMENTS

4  President's Column
The Future
Carl A. Harvey II

6  Guest Editor—Column I
Embracing Tomorrow’s Creature
Steven Yates

8  Guest Editor—Column II
Stories: Mission, Power, Promise
Wendy DeGroat

79  Index to Advertisers