Prepare yourself with the support you need to realize your school library program goals this year!

AASL’s eAcademy offers a variety of four-week courses designed to expand the skills that make you an educational leader in your school. All courses are asynchronous, Moodle-based courses developed with the busy professional in mind.

AASL Planning Guide: Empowering Infinite Options for Personalized Professional Growth
facilitated by Mary Keeling

Explore the AASL Planning Guide and Rubric grounded in principles of adult learning and peer coaching.

Common Core and New Standards: The Basics and Beyond
facilitated by Paige Jaeger

"Repackage" a current unit for CCSS alignment and Inquiry learning. Learn how Close Reading activities should naturally lead to research.

Design for Understanding Meets the 21st Century School Librarian
facilitated by Mary Keeling

The Understanding by Design Curriculum framework, also known as the Backward Design model, is unique in that it begins with the end in mind.

From 0 to 60: Implement eBooks in Your Library Program in 4 Weeks
facilitated by Richard Hasenyager

Learn to select the right vendors and implement an eBook collection for your campus/school district that meets the needs of your students and staff.

From Basics to Beyond: Using, Promoting, & Teaching Project-Based Learning
facilitated by Rhonda Huismann

What’s the difference between a problem and a project, and where do you (and the library) fit in? Explore the basics of project-based learning, including relevant terminology, best practices, curriculum integration, tools and techniques, and assessment.

Inquiring Minds Want to Know: Infusing Literacy Skills into the Inquiry Process
Instructors: Liz Deskins & Christina Dorr

Inquiry and literacy – are they one and the same or complementary processes? Explore different inquiry models and how literacy can be instilled throughout.

Making a Place, Making a Case for Read-Alouds: A Powerful Teaching Tool for Literacy
Instructors: Liz Deskins & Christina Dorr

Teach critical thinking skills while continuing to share the passion and power of a great read-aloud.

AASL offers its eAcademy courses on a rotating basis. If you are interested in a class that is not currently being offered please contact aasl@ala.org.
