Review Date(s):

Review Responsibility: AASL Board of Directors; ESLS

Policy Statement:
Officers of the ESLS shall be the Chair, Chair-Elect, the past Chair, an elected Representative to the AASL Board of Directors, and a Secretary. The Executive Committee shall be composed of elected officers and the chairs of standing committees.

Focus:
Primary: Educators of School Librarians Section
Secondary: AASL Board of Directors, AASL Members

Purpose:
To define the roles and responsibilities of the Educators of School Librarians Section Officers.

Procedure:
1. Officers of the ESLS shall be the Chair, Chair-Elect, the past Chair, an elected Representative to the AASL Board, and a Secretary. The Executive Committee shall be composed of elected officers and the chairs of standing committees.
2. Meetings of the Executive Committee shall be held at the ALA Annual conference and at the ALA Midwinter meeting. Additional meetings may take place as needed in site-based or virtual formats. Additional meetings may be called by the ESLS Chair with the approval of the Executive Committee, or at the written request of at least one-half of the ESLS Executive Committee.
3. Members of the Executive Committee and Chairs of standing committees are expected to attend ALA Annual and ALA Midwinter conferences during their term of office. Failure to attend all identified conferences and subsequent meetings dramatically impact the ability of officers and committee chairs to direct the business of ESLS so attendance at these events is critical.
4. Election of officers will be conducted annually as a component of the ALA/AASL balloting procedure.
5. Terms begin at the end of the ALA annual meeting. Terms of office are:
