Yes

Q25: If So, Please Briefly Explain What It Was and What Your Association Hoped to Achieve.
Only had one business meeting during the middle of the conference with not conflict to get higher attendance; had an evening "unconference" for a less formal type of interaction and sharing

Q26: Was It Successful?
Yes

Q27: Will Your Association Offer This Again at Its Next Annual Conference?
Yes

Q28: List Your Association's Most Successful Events Held during Conference.
The 100th Anniversary of the Wyoming Library Association Celebration to kick off conference (conference theme was "Look Back, Lead Forward"). Legislative Luncheon had a debate with the two candidates for Wyoming State Superintendent of Public Instruction. Due to issues with the previous superintendent, this was a critical race for libraries, schools and the children of the State of Wyoming. The program Networking Success for Introverts and Extroverts (see Keynote Speaker below).
Q29: Share Outstanding Keynotes or Speakers (include topics, please).

Jennifer Kahnweiler conducted a pre-conference workshop on The Introverted Leader and was the Keynote Speaker for the conference (Quiet Influence: The New Wave of Leadership). She also did a session on networking. The BizRef session exposed librarians to the business databases available statewide through funding from the legislature and grants. Full STEAM Ahead was a program by Carrie Lucas, Laramie County Library System, on the Science, Technology, Engineering, Art and Math programs and an overview of online sources to assist with creating First Lego Leagues and other STEAM programming on a small budget. What Skills Do Students Need to Use In College started a great dialog between university and school librarians - the panel included a high school librarian as moderator and a community college and university librarian as presenters.

Q30: List Major Activities, Accomplishments of Your Association during Fiscal Year (e.g., Library Legislative Day, legislative successes, new strategic plan, trainings, etc.).

The School Library Interest Group successfully was admitted as a chapter of the American Association of School Librarians. MemberClicks was more fully implemented. Successful Legislative Reception in Cheyenne in January 2013 for legislators during the session where discussions about creating a mechanism so that the endowment fund monies, if matching funds are not raised by some public libraries, may go to libraries who are able to raise funds instead of reverting to the general fund in 2017

Q31: List Major Issues Facing Your Association (e.g, budget, membership , structure, systems, competition, etc.).

Succession planning is a continuing challenge. Membership has declined over the last the two years. Will be doing an RFP for a lobbyist. Improving our social media presence and enhance web site.
