Midwinter 2016 Midwinter/Executive Board
President-Elect Report – Julie Todaro

ALA Leadership

I continue to thank Board leadership as ALA President-elect and am still learning from Board Steering Committee phone discussions, Board conference calls, our Fall Board meeting, NYC December meetings and my liaison work with the Equity, Diversity and Inclusion Task Force (with more information following.)

Task Force on EDI (ALA Connect has meeting agendas, minutes.)

The Task Force continues to make progress with regular emails and phone calls.

Midwinter/Now
- TF leaders are working with new ALA staff in EDI areas for onboarding.
- The TF is offering a number of programs (awareness and training) at Midwinter, co-sponsoring several other programs and has identified and advertised programs on topic and offered by other groups.
- ALA Member input (focus group, “hearings,” program audiences, and 2/3 surveys etc.) content includes:
  - In-person member content that was placed in a grid has been subdivided and TF membership has been divided into subgroups to review content to group and prioritize as needed.
  - 2/3 surveys have been distributed and TF members have been working with Kathy Rosa on an analysis of results from the first survey and will check in to see the status of the analysis. Results from #’s 1 and 2 will be condensed and “summarized for public consumption.” By Midwinter an executive summary of preliminary findings should be ready for distribution. Draft questions for survey 3 will be available for the TF before Midwinter as well. An in-depth analysis of surveys 1, 2 and 3 will happen when the TF work is concluded.

Orlando
- Armbands: We will follow up to see if some armbands will be available for TF members at Boston as a teaser for Orlando.
- Day of Service for Orlando planning is underway and the TF is working with the Librarians Build Community Program to coordinate activities.
- ALA Orlando general program discussions include Dream Defenders who have programs on the Stand Your Ground law and the TF is focusing on Sunday programs to avoid SRRT’s primary activity. Trevor and Martin will welcome attendees at the start of all programs, and Jody and Wendy will each be at one of the sessions for the whole time.

Final Report
The TF is outlining their final report and expect it to include their actions accomplished and a prioritized list of recommendations and ‘who’ within or external to ALA might accomplish the activities. Recommendations are likely to include an implementation oversite workgroup (Ex. Ad hoc TF, etc.)

TF on Context for Future Accreditation

This TF has had a number of conference calls and has divided into subgroups and identified a timeline. Individuals have identified research to review and the chair is attending meetings at ALISE.

Committee Appointments

Of the three major projects - Committees on Nominations; appointments to ALA Committees and appointments to Council Committees – the processes for ALA and Council committees are on schedule with the Nominations Committee almost complete (two slots left to fill.)

Presidential Initiative

My Initiative Steering Committee met the second week of November in Chicago to continue planning for my presidential initiative. My focus is “Libraries Transform: the Expert in the Library.” I have academic, public, school and special working groups along with an advocacy, management and leadership working group and then an Expert Panel for vetting products and information. Groups meet at ALA conferences and virtually. As stated before, Janice Welburn (Marquette) and Beth McNeil (U of Iowa) are co-chairs of the overall focus with workgroups having either tri-chairs or co-chairs.

Presidential-elect/Midwinter Activities

There will be a number of activities (business meetings, receptions and a fundraiser) in the President-elect’s suite. I will join the rest of the Board members in attending meetings, acting as a liaison and hosting as needed.
