Resolution Thanking Congress and the President for Funding Libraries

Whereas, The Museum and Library Services Act (MLSA) funds the Library Services and Technology Act (LSTA); and

Whereas, LSTA has stimulated library innovation in a variety of ways; and

Whereas, The LSTA reauthorization received bipartisan support from Senators on both sides of the aisle; and

Whereas, The MLSA reauthorization was passed by the Senate Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions (HELP) Committee, the full Senate, and the House of Representatives.

Whereas, President Donald Trump threatened to not sign the MLSA into law, he eventually did so on December 22, 2017.

Resolved, The American Library Association would like to thank the Senate leadership, the Senate and House of Representatives, and President Trump for their efforts to sustain the federal role supporting library services, as the cornerstone of our nation’s information infrastructure.

Resolution Commending the U.S. Congress and the President on the Reauthorization of the Museum and Library Services Act

Whereas, the Museum and Library Services Act (MLSA) reauthorizes the Library Services and Technology Act (LSTA), ALA Policy A.6.1 (Management of ALA Funds);

Whereas, LSTA has stimulated library innovation, digital literacy, 21st century skills, improved services and facilities, literacy, interlibrary cooperation, resource sharing, workforce resources and services, and library and information science research;

Whereas, the LSTA reauthorization received bipartisan support from Senators Jack Reed (D-RI), Thad Cochran (R-MS), Richard Burr (R-NC), Tom Harkin (D-IA), Susan Collins (R-ME), Michael Enzi (RWY), and Jon Tester (D-MT);

Whereas, the MLSA reauthorization was quickly passed unanimously without amendments by the Senate Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions (HELP) Committee, the full Senate, and the House of Representatives; and

Whereas, President Donald Trump signed MLSA into law on December 22, 2017; now therefore be it

Resolved, that the American Library Association (ALA), on behalf of its members:

Commends the leadership of Senator Jack Reed, co-sponsors Senators Thad Cochran, Richard Burr, Tom Harkin, Susan Collins, Michael Enzi, and Jon Tester and the members of the United States Senate and House of Representatives, and President Donald Trump for their efforts to sustain the federal role supporting library services, as the cornerstone of our nation’s information infrastructure.
