

Innovation Award Rubric
ACRL - Instruction Section - Awards Committee

Required Criteria

Nomination Form and Completed Nomination Packet	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No
---	--

Selection Criteria

	Score
1. Idea a. Develops a novel, clever, or original approach to a long-standing, emergent, or wicked problem in line with national trends of information literacy instruction and programming (10 points)
2. Quality a. Implementation of best practices applicable to the project's format, platform, or other such design (5 points)
b. Demonstrated level of impact through assessments, surveys, or other measurements (5 points)
3. Product/Outcome a. The project is transformative or represents a breakthrough to solving a long-standing, emergent, or wicked problem in information literacy instruction or programming (10 points)
b. The project has a vision for how it can be sustained in the future (5 points)
4. Other a. Points at the discretion of the reviewer for qualities such as inspirational, scalability, replicability, open access, etc. (5 points)
Total (of 40)	