

PPIRS Marta Lange/ SAGE-CQ Press Award

Nomination Form

Submission Deadline: January 26, 2018

This is a fillable PDF file. To fill out electronically, save a copy to your computer and open in Adobe.

This annual award recognizes an academic or law librarian who, through research, service to the profession, or other creative activity, makes distinguished contributions to bibliography and information service in law or political science. This award honors Marta Lange, 1990-91 Law and Political Science Section (LPSS) Chair, whose exceptional talents as a leader were enhanced by a wonderful collegial spirit. Her bright career, cut short in a fatal automobile accident in 1992, was an inspiration to others and a model of professional service.

AWARD

Please select which category/categories you wish to submit a nomination for. Multiple categories may be selected for a nomination, but the nomination should explain the contributions in each category. Please note: only one award will be given each year inclusive of all categories. PPIRS reserves the right to give an additional award for outstanding Lifetime Achievement nominations.

Innovation in Teaching and Learning

Recognizes the development or improvement of significant educational resources and/or services for use in the teaching and learning of law, politics, or policy related fields. Nominations should describe the innovative efforts and contributions of the nominee.

Scholarship and Research

Recognizes significant scholarly and research contributions in law, politics, or policy related librarianship.

Service to the Profession

Recognizes significant leadership and active participation in the library profession, as well as law, politics, or policy related librarianship.

Mentorship

Recognizes ongoing and significant efforts to support and assist colleagues, especially those beginning their professional careers and/or new to law, politics, or policy related librarianship.

Civic Engagement

Recognizes ongoing and significant efforts to connect the library to its broader communities around law, politics, or policy related issues.

Lifetime Achievement

Recognizes the cumulative career achievements of political science, international affairs, policy, law, and government related librarianship, including achievements in several of the following: scholarship (publications and presentations), service to the profession (professional organization and committee work), instruction and reference services, mentorship, library outreach, and civic engagement. This prestigious recognition is given to librarians with at least 20 years of service to the profession.

More information about each of these categories, including examples of each, is available on the award's webpage at www.ala.org/acrl/awards. Nominees must be active members of PPIRS or other related professional organizations. Preference will be given to candidates who are members of PPIRS.
