

ACRL College Library Section

Midwinter, 2005

CLS Program for 2006 Annual Program Committee Report

Prior to Midwinter, Chair-elect Robin Wagner and Irene Herold established that the theme for the 2006 CLS Program would be "Big Ideas, Small Staff: Successful Strategies for College Libraries."

Midwinter Meeting Report:

Dena Hutto, Barbara Durniak, and Irene Herold met from 12:30-2 pm on Sunday, January 16th at the Marriott Copley Place. We discussed the information I received from the ACRL Program Committee about timelines, etc. We also brainstormed about examples we knew to contact for potential speakers, and came up with another one or two possibilities, but also decided to query COLLIB-L, since even if respondents were not invited to "officially" be part of the presenting panel, we are planning on having informal presentations from those who can't find the time to prepare, but want to share.

After Midwinter activity:

Two calls for proposals were sent to COLLIB-L, one prior to the ACRL annual meeting and one after with an April 30th deadline. 26 proposals were received. The committee has been reviewing these and will make decisions for acceptance at the ALA Annual meeting in Chicago.

Third and fourth committee members were added, Alice Bahr, Member-at-Large, and Ronalee Ciocco.

Respectfully submitted,

Irene Herold
Committee Chair
