Libraries are:

An important part of the campus
learning community

Connecting students and faculty with a world of knowledge

Investing in the future while preserving the past

City College of San Francisco

Librarians live the mantra of being about and for student success which spawns energetic, effective and highly creative programs.

Baruch College

Librarians, with limited resources and innovative programs, meet the challenge of supporting the diversity of cultures, languages, and perspectives of the population they serve.

Loyola University New Orleans

Librarians have developed through leadership, partnerships, creativity, and innovation a model of what excellent libraries are and will become.

Who makes it all happen?
