

AASL Regional Institute: Collaborative Leadership

is the first in a series of regional institutes available from AASL for use nationwide.

The AASL Regional Institute: Collaborative Leadership ties into two of the ideas – collaboration and leadership – that underlie the vision of library media programs presented in Information Power: Building Partnerships for Learning. Each is integral to every aspect of the library media program and every component of the school library media specialist's role.

Participant Outcomes

- ◆ Gain knowledge of the leadership skills necessary to achieve change
- ◆ Work with other leaders to study the challenges facing the profession
- ◆ Tie AASL and ALA resources to specific leadership strategies
- ◆ Examine leadership opportunities available in AASL and ALA
- ◆ Develop new contacts
- ◆ Prioritize, plan and reflect on professional and personal goals
- ◆ Receive professional development credit

Are you interested in hosting this regional institute?

For complete details on available dates, program outline and license agreement contact:

Topic Outline

- ◆ Qualities of Leadership
- ◆ Self-awareness of Personal Characteristics
- ◆ Perceptions of the Profession
- ◆ Clarity of Message
- ◆ Challenges Facing the Profession
- ◆ Leadership Strategies to Employ
- ◆ Action Plan for Leadership

Here's some feedback from past attendees:

“Great resources!
Excellent workshop!”

“Information is
'instantly usable'!
Thank you!”

“Your training made us feel like
better leaders already!”

American Association of School Librarians
50 E. Huron, Chicago, IL 60611
Phone: 800-545-2433, ext. 4382
Fax: 312-280-5276
E-mail: aasl@ala.org
Web: <http://www.aasl.org>