ABC-CLIO LEADERSHIP GRANT

Sponsored by the American Association of School Librarians (AASL) a division of the American Library Association (ALA) and ABC-CLIO Schools.

An Annual Grant

Knowing that the American Association of School Librarians share with us the aspiration to foster the development of leadership skills, ABC-CLIO takes great pride in joining with AASL in sponsoring this award. For over 30 years, ABC-CLIO has served libraries with quality reference publications and has enjoyed the respect and loyalty of librarians. ABC-CLIO currently publishes the award winning series, Contemporary World Issues, and other outstanding reference books for school libraries by co-sponsoring the Leadership Grant.

A total of up to $1,750 in grant(s) will be awarded to an AASL affiliate(s) for leadership program(s).

The purpose of the grant is to encourage AASL affiliates to plan and implement leadership programs at the state, regional, or local levels.

Possibilities include programs that:

- Involve new members;
- Train on-going leaders;
- Prepare school library media specialists to be building or district level leaders;
- Encourage collaboration among organizations.

New ideas and approaches to leadership are encouraged.

Criteria

All applications for the grant will be judged against the following criteria:

1. Program objectives are clear.
2. The nature and importance of desired leadership qualities are specified.
3. Intended participant group is well defined.
4. Plan of action and calendar are included.
5. Budget is well planned.
6. Evaluation plan is valid and follow-up activities are appropriate.
7. Program has merit for replication by other affiliates.

Deadline

APPLICATIONS MUST BE POSTMARKED BY FEBRUARY 1, 2010
