

2010

FRANCES HENNE AWARD APPLICATION

Sponsored by the American Association of School Librarians (AASL) a division of the American Library Association (ALA) and Greenwood Publishing Group.

About the Award

The Frances Henne Award will enable one school library media specialist to attend the ALA Annual Conference in Washington, D.C. in June 2010 or the AASL 15th National Conference and Exhibition in Minneapolis, MN in October 2011. A grant of $1,250 will be given to a school library media specialist who has demonstrated leadership qualities in working with students, teachers, and administrators.

Requirements for the Award

1. The applicant shall be a current member, in good standing, of ALA and the AASL Division as of February 1, 2010.
2. The applicant shall be currently employed as a school library media specialist at the building level and have from 1-5 years experience as a school library media specialist. (For this award, experience should not exceed 5 years. The terms school library media specialists and school librarian are considered synonymous.)
3. The applicant shall have no previous attendance at an annual ALA Conference or a national AASL Conference.
