

ASCLA

Association of Specialized and Cooperative Library Agencies
a division of the American Library Association

WHEREAS, Cathleen Bourdon has served the members of ASCLA with great professionalism, integrity and a can-do attitude for the past thirteen years, and

WHEREAS, Cathleen used her strong professionalism and knowledge of ALA to promote and raise the profile of ASCLA and

WHEREAS, Cathleen always remembered that members serving on ASCLA boards and committees were volunteers and provided us with guidance like a den mother and

WHEREAS, Cathleen always approached member questions, suggestions and ideas with great enthusiasm and creativity and

WHEREAS, Cathleen has consistently encouraged everyone to share her vision of ASCLA as a glass that was half full in spite of having very little water in it, and

WHEREAS, Cathleen strongly exemplifies ASCLA's values, and has provided sustained leadership to the division and exceptional service through participation in activities, which have enhanced the stature, reputation and overall strength of ASCLA representing ASCLA to our benefit; therefore be it

RESOLVED, that the ASCLA Board of Directors proclaims that ASCLA's Service Award shall be henceforth known as the Cathleen Bourdon Service Award in recognition and celebration of her exemplary service and professionalism.

January 23, 2007 by the ASCLA Board of Directors