NETWORK TO BUILD SKILLS & CAREER

CLENE offers many opportunities to grow your skills in continuing education as well as to help build your career.

Volunteer for a CLENE committee — help with conference programs, print or electronic publishing, strategic planning (at MidWinter) or marketing to current and new members.

Write a short article for our newsletter, the CLENExchange.

Participate in our active CLENE discussion list.

Run for the CLENE Board. It's a great way to develop national contacts and experience, build your resume and have fun.

TOP NOTCH PROGRAMS!

Recent CLENE programs include:

- Creating a Staff Development Plan
- Learning When There's No Time or Money
- Learning for Library Staff: Make it Blended – Not on the Rocks!: Developing Blended Learning programs for Library Staff.
- Training Showcase (annual event)
- Good CLENE Fun: Using Interactive Games to Energize Meetings & Training
- Managing Virtual Teams
- The Accidental Trainer Pre-Conference
- Planning Continuing Education Events for Library Staff

IS CLENE FOR YOU?

Whether you are a veteran trainer in libraries or new to continuing education (CE), CLENE can help you stay on top of trends in the field while providing you with valuable resources and support.

Consider the benefits of CLENE membership if your responsibilities include:

- Staff development
- Training for staff or the public
- Conference planning
- Conducting workshops
- CE consulting
