Changes in the June 2012 revision Handbook of Organization

(May Hill) Arbuthnot Honor Lecture: Updated membership statement to reflect appointment of chair and four members, and status as a virtual committee.

Division Leadership Manual – June 2012
6. Virtual committees.

6.1. ALSC may determine that some committees can conduct their business entirely online and designate these as virtual committees.

6.2. All members of virtual committees must have convenient access to email.

6.3. It is recommended that the chair of virtual committees attend midwinter and annual conference in order to participate in the division leadership meeting and to conduct other business.

6.4. It is particularly important that all members of virtual committees participate fully in electronic discussion of committee business.

6.5. In order to facilitate input from members at large about committee business, virtual committees are required to announce their electronic agendas on ALA Connect well in advance of decision deadlines and solicit comments from the membership.
This manual was designed to provide support for five audiences involved with this lecture.

Introduction

The May Hill Arbuthnot Honor Lectureship is a unique collaboration between several groups of people—the committee, the chosen Lecturer, the ALSC staff and Board of Directors, and the host site coordinators. The result is an exciting opportunity to celebrate and add to the knowledge and scholarship in the field of children’s literature. Publication in Children & Libraries: The Journal of the Association for Library Service to Children ensures the lecture will be a lasting contribution that is available to a broad audience.

The Arbuthnot Committee has two major tasks. The first is to choose the lecturer and the second is to select the site to host the lecture. The committee will have an exciting professional experience that will benefit the children’s literature community.

FUNCTION STATEMENT

To choose annually an individual of distinction who shall prepare and present a paper which shall be a significant contribution to the field of children’s literature; to select a host institution and make appropriate arrangements for the presentation of the lecture; to arrange for publication of the lecture in Children & Libraries: The Journal of the Association for Library Service to Children.

The lecturership was established in 1968 to honor May Hill Arbuthnot (Appendices A & B).

The Arbuthnot Honor Lecture Committee shall consist of five people appointed by the ALSC President and will function virtually. The chair and four members shall serve for a period of two years, from the close of Midwinter to the close of Midwinter.

TERMS

The lecture shall be given by a person who has made a distinguished contribution to the field of children’s literature. The lecturer need not be a resident or citizen of the United States.

RELATED TERMS AND DEFINITIONS

Children’s literature: Books published for children up to and including the age of 14.

Lecturer: The Lecturer may be related to the field in any area: author, illustrator, editor, publisher, professor of children’s literature, reviewer, art director, etc.

Site: The host institution site may be a library, university, special collection, or other appropriate organization. The Lectureship may be sponsored by more than one institution.

Distinguished: • Marked by eminence and distinction; noted for significant achievement. • Marked by excellence in quality. • Marked by conspicuous excellence or eminence. • Individually distinct.

Criteria in identifying a distinguished contribution: • Impact of the candidate’s work on the world of children’s literature. • Honoring a person who has played a significant role in the field of children’s literature. • Through the Lectureship, the Lecturer has the opportunity to make an additional contribution to the field. • The committee needs to respectfully consider the potential of the candidate to make an additional contribution to the field through the Lectureship.

Note: The committee should keep in mind that the award is an opportunity for a scholarly contribution to the field and is not a popularity contest.

Criteria to be considered when choosing a site

- Thoroughness of the application.
- Special reasons for applying such as a particular interest in the work of the Lecturer; a special celebration, etc.
- Evidence of administrative, organizational, and fiscal support by sponsoring institutions and/or organizations.
- The extent to which meaningful cooperation among various local or area groups would suggest an ability to share financial and human resources.
- Geographical placement; keep in mind that part of the mission is for this lectureship to be given in different parts of the country.
- Ability to draw an audience from both the worlds of children’s books and the general population.
- Emphasis on Lecture as a distinctive event publicized to and open to all potential attendees.
- Venue for Lecture presentation.
- Any special needs of the Lecturer.
- Site limitations based on its calendar that were included in the proposal.
- Accessibility by major transportation venues in the region.
- ADA Accessibility of the site.

ALSC POLICY FOR SERVICE ON THE MAY HILL ARBUTHNOT HONOR LECTURE COMMITTEE

ALSC affirms its confidence in the integrity of members who are invited to be nominated or appointed to serve on award committees, and in the integrity of the officers or nominating committees responsible for selecting candidates. Because of the nature of the work of such committees, those who serve on them must be especially sensitive to conflict of interest situations and the appearance of impropriety. The purpose of this policy is to clarify the eligibility and responsibility of candidates asked to serve on such committees.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

It is the policy of the Association for Library Service to Children, its Board of Directors and committees to insure that members in all of its activities avoid conflicts of interest and the appearance of conflicts of interest resulting from their activities as members of committees of the Association. In particular, no person should obtain or appear to obtain special advantages for themselves, their relatives, their employer or their close associates as a result of their services on a committee.

A conflict of interest occurs when an individual's personal or private interests may lead an independent observer reasonably to question whether the individual's professional actions or decisions are influenced by considerations of significant personal or private interest, financial or otherwise.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Committee members need to maintain a high degree of confidentiality regarding the committee’s discussions, both oral and written. All committee members need to feel free to speak frankly in a closed session, knowing that their comments will not be repeated outside that room, and that they reserve the right to speak on their own behalf outside of that closed session.

ALSC members-at-large, as well as Arbuthnot Committee members, are encouraged to nominate individuals for consideration. Committee members must not discuss the merits of nominees outside the committee. Similarly, committee members must not discuss the merits of locations that have applied to host the lecture with anyone outside the committee.

GUIDELINES FOR AWARD COMMITTEES

The Association for Library Service to Children grants a number of awards and it is very important that conflicts of interest and the appearance of conflicts of interest be especially avoided and that confidentiality be maintained in the process of determining who should receive the awards. It is a privilege to serve on an award committee and with that privilege come specific responsibilities to assist the Association for Library Service to Children in preventing conflicts of interest and the appearance of conflicts of interest in the award process. Each person who is nominated or appointed to serve on an award committee is expected to consider carefully whether any of his or her personal or professional interests, obligations, activities, or associations could reasonably lead to even the appearance of a conflict of interest, or breach of confidentiality, and to discuss any such potential conflicts with the ALSC Executive Director prior to accepting the nomination or appointment. Situations that arise after a committee member has begun to serve should be directed to the ALSC President, Committee Chair, Priority Group Consultant, and Executive Director. The final decision rests with the Executive Committee.

Those who accept a nomination or appointment to the Arbuthnot Committee should adhere to the following guidelines:

1) Members who have written and/or illustrated children’s books are eligible to serve, and will not be eligible to be selected during their terms of service on the committee.

2) Committee members may not apply to host the Lecture during their terms of service. Past hosts may serve on the committee.

3) Members may not be employed by a children’s trade book publisher, author, illustrator, or in some other position that could be seen as a conflict; nor serve in an advisory capacity beyond the provision of normal reference service, to a children’s trade book publisher, author, or illustrator, during the first year of his/her term of service in which the committee selects the lecturer. This includes writing teachers guides or readers’ group guides at the request of a children’s trade book publisher.

4) Members of award committees should not reveal or publicize any confidential information learned through service on the committee; nor should they make such confidential information available to non-committee-members.

5) Members of award committees who run or participate in social networking websites or software, including blogs, Facebook, electronic discussion lists, and the like, should not engage in any discussions about their ALSC award committee work, or about the status of eligible individuals in relationship to these awards during their term of committee service.

6) Members may not serve concurrently on the ALSC Board and the Arbuthnot Committee.

7) From time to time, the Association for Library Service to Children may take other action or establish such other guidelines as may be necessary in the Association’s sole discretion to protect the integrity of the award process. Questions from prospective committee members and candidates should be directed to the Executive Director; situations that arise after a committee member has begun to serve should be directed to the ALSC President, Committee Chair, Priority Group Consultant, and Executive Director. The final decision rests with the Executive Committee.
Those who would like to submit a nomination for the lecturer or an application to host the Arbuthnot Lecture should adhere to the following guidelines:

1) During the selection process, those with a close family relationship (parent, spouse/partner, son/daughter), or a personal relationship with a committee member which could reasonably be seen by an independent observer to cause a conflict of interest may not be nominated.

2) Applications to host the Lecture will be ineligible, if the applicant has a close family relationship (parent, spouse/partner, son/daughter), or a personal relationship which could reasonably be seen by an independent observer to cause a conflict of interest, with a committee member.

MEETING ATTENDANCE FOR VIRTUAL COMMITTEE

Persons appointed to the Arbuthnot Committee should be able to participate in all required discussion and decision meetings as scheduled by the Chair and follow procedures established by the committee. Although this requirement may limit membership on a committee, wise selection requires complete participation of all members of the committee.

FREQUENCY OF SERVICE ON THE ARBUTHNOT COMMITTEE

Members may serve more than once on the Arbuthnot Committee, consistent with ALSC Bylaws, Article VIII, Section 4.

Violation of any of the above guidelines may result in dismissal from the award committee and may preclude service from future award committees.
COMMITTEE MEMBERSHIP RESPONSIBILITY

The Arbuthnot Honor Lecture Committee is appointed from two to six months prior to the year in which they are choosing the lecturer. For a committee to be effective, there must be full participation of all members.

Each member has the responsibility to research and present his/her nominations for the lecturer and to take full part in corresponding with the committee through the chair. In addition, members will evaluate applications for the host site. A committee member who finds it impossible to do this should resign as soon as possible. If the chair does not hear from a committee member, the chair is responsible for contacting the committee member to ascertain if there is a potential on-going problem that prevents the member from full participation. If there is such a continuing problem, the chair may request that the member resign for the good of the committee. The ALSC President shall immediately accept such resignations when tendered. If the chair cannot contact the committee member or believes the lack of participation will continue, and the member has not resigned, the chair must request the ALSC President consider the situation. In the event that a committee member has not resigned and is not taking an active part in the committee’s work, the Executive Committee shall request that the committee member tender his/her resignation. If a committee member refuses, the Executive Committee shall remove the member and inform the ALSC Board of its action. The President shall then appoint a new committee member. The final decision rests with the Executive Committee.

The ALSC members appointed to this committee have actively participated in some aspect of children’s literature. Therefore, they will have some background knowledge about different contributors to the field. However, given the breadth and diversity of the field, it is not fair to assume that committee members may be familiar with all the nominated individuals. Emphasis, therefore, should be placed upon thorough research to support each committee member’s suggested candidate. This research is then used to ensure all committee members are familiar with the nominated individual and his/her contributions to the field.

Committee members may want to familiarize themselves with ideas for potential speakers by looking at Horn Book magazine, Book Links, Bookbird (the USBBY newsletter), children’s literature textbooks, and other appropriate resources.

CONFIDENTIALITY OF DISCUSSION AND OF SELECTION

Committee members are encouraged to seek suggestions for potential lecturers. The purpose of such discussion is to help the committee members to grow in their awareness of potential contributors to the field of children’s literature.

As noted above in the Policy for Service on the Arbuthnot Committee, there is a need to maintain a high degree of confidentiality regarding the committee’s discussions, both oral and written. Please remember the following are not for public discussion at any time prior to, during, or following the announcement of the lecturer and/or host site. This is not intended to limit a committee member’s right to speak as an individual. However, the goal is to preserve the privacy of other committee members who will thus feel free to speak frankly in a closed session.
• Reasons (other than your own) given by committee members for nominating, supporting or removing an individual or potential host from consideration. The committee’s reasons for selection of lecturer and site will be given by the committee chair and/or a designate who prepares the press release and/or the announcement articles.
• The list of individuals and potential hosts.

Another aspect of confidentiality about which there is concern is the need to preserve secrecy between the selection and the public announcement of those selected. One prime reason is to preserve the sense of excitement about the announcement. Another is to ensure that the lecturer and, if possible, the winning host site applicant, are informed before the public. Other reasons for maintaining secrecy about the winners prior to the public announcement include misinformation, which has occasionally been leaked, and poor relationship with ALSC members when some non-committee members are “in on” the information and others are not.

INPUT FROM THE ALSC MEMBERSHIP

Suggestions from the ALSC membership-at-large are welcomed and encouraged.

Chair should confirm the ALSC office places a brief ad-like paragraph inviting members to suggest potential lecturers in issues of Children & Libraries, ALSConnect, on the Web site, the blog, and through the member electronic discussion lists.

While encouraging ALSC members to suggest lecturers, remember that the nominations made by committee members, as well as member suggestions are confidential information.

After the lecturer is chosen, ALSC should place an ad-like paragraph in its publications, on the Web site, the blog, and through the member electronic discussion list to encourage people to apply to host the lecture. ALSC members should be encouraged to have their institutions or organizations apply to host a lectureship.

NOMINATION

It is suggested that all formal nominations be submitted via email, fax, and/or U.S. mail.

Suggested Information for a Nomination
• Name
• Professional title/occupation
• Biographical sketch
• Justification for consideration
• Major publications

The committee chair will compile a list of all nominated individuals and disseminate it to committee members.
FIRST MIDWINTER MEETING

Attendance at this meeting is not required. If most of the committee members will be at the first Midwinter Meeting and there are procedural matters to discuss, an open meeting of the committee may be called. The agenda should be limited to discussion of the contents of the committee manual and to establishing operating procedures such as calendar, methods of communication and procedures. No individuals should be discussed at this open meeting. Business early in the committee’s year may also be conducted by email, telephone, or U.S. mail.

FIRST ANNUAL CONFERENCE MEETING

The main purpose of this discussion is to evaluate and select two potential Lecturers. The second potential Lecturer will be used if the first potential Lecturer is unavailable. The meeting may be done via conference call or online discussion. If a meeting room is needed during Annual Conference please contact ALSC Awards Coordinator with a room request.

The chair will provide the committee with at least one copy of information related to nominated individuals nominated by the committee members or by members of ALSC at large. It is important for committee members to remember only individuals previously nominated or suggested by committee members or ALSC members may be considered at the selection meeting. No individuals may be added to the list once the Annual Conference discussions begin. For this reason it is important to suggest individuals for committee consideration, and urge ALSC members to send in suggestions to the committee, prior to the conference.

Committee members should have prepared: personal notes about individuals under consideration; all pertinent committee correspondence, including the final list of individuals under consideration; and the nomination statement.

Order of Business
- Reintroduction of committee members.
- Appointment by the chair of a secretary.
- Decide how voting is to be handled.
- Review the terms, criteria, and definitions.
- Review the nominations and select two potential Lecturers.
- Determine who will create the press release after the chair has secured the Lecturer’s commitment later in the summer/fall.

The secretary takes minutes of all procedural decisions. No minutes are kept of discussion of individuals. The minutes are placed in the ALSC archives as the record of the committee’s actions. The secretary sends the minutes to the committee Chair prior to the end of the final committee discussion. The Chair attaches the minutes to the Post-Conference Committee Report form found in the Division Leadership Manual and submits them to the ALSC Executive Director, President, Vice-President, and Priority Group Consultant.

After the selection is made, the committee chair confirms commitment from the Lecturer, notifies the ALSC Awards Coordinator and Executive Director, and coordinates the preparation of a press release for the announcement at the Youth Media Awards Press Conference at the following Midwinter.

SECOND MIDWINTER MEETING

Attendance at this meeting is not required. If most of the committee members will be at the second Midwinter Meeting and there are procedural matters to discuss, an open meeting of the committee may be called. The committee may also take this opportunity to prepare/revise the host site application. The application, or any other procedural business before the committee at this point, may also be discussed and prepared via email, telephone, or U.S. mail.

SECOND ANNUAL CONFERENCE MEETING

The main purpose of this meeting is to evaluate and select a host site for the lectureship. The meeting may be done via conference call or online discussion. If a meeting room is needed during Annual Conference please contact ALSC Awards Coordinator with a room request.

Order of Business:
- Reintroduction of committee members.
- Appointment by the chair of a secretary.
- Decide how voting is to be handled.
- Review the terms, criteria, and definitions.
- Review the applications and select a site.
- Deliver the information to the onsite ALSC office so that an announcement can be made at the ALSC Membership Meeting, usually held on Monday.
- Create a press release for the ALSC office to disseminate following the conference.

The secretary takes minutes of all procedural decisions. No minutes are kept of discussion of individuals sites/applications. The minutes are placed in the ALSC archives as the record of the committee’s actions. The secretary sends the minutes to the committee Chair prior to the end of the final committee discussion. The Chair attaches the minutes to the Post-Conference Committee Report form found in the Division Leadership Manual and submits them to the ALSC Executive Director, President, Vice-President, and Priority Group Consultant.
EFFECTIVE DISCUSSION

Discussion is enhanced if committee members keep in mind the following tips.

- Speak loudly enough to be heard.
- Try not to engage in private conversations with individual committee members during the meetings or virtual discussions.
- Speak briefly, and allow others an opportunity to speak before speaking again.
- Listen carefully to other committee members.
- Speak only to the terms, criteria, and definitions for this honor lecture award.
- Avoid generalities such as, “I love this city.”
PART III: ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES
COMMITTEE CHAIR

The committee chair is a voting member of the committee with all the rights and responsibilities of other committee members.

There is a delicate balance that the chair must maintain between serving as chair and serving as a committee member. Many chairs find it helpful to the free flow of the discussion if they limit their discussion to candidates they feel strongly about, and speak only to make a point that has not already been made.

The chair is responsible for setting the tone for committee discussion. This can be done by accepting all statements relative to the discussion, by firm leadership leading the discussion on pertinent issues, and by the ability to provide opportunity and encouragement for all committee members to speak, without allowing any member to dominate. In addition, the chair does the following:

- Establishes calendar and mailing procedures for the committee. Sends committee roster to all members (November – December).
- Conducts all committee virtual discussions or meetings (Midwinter Meeting and Annual Conference).
- Corresponds with committee members immediately after their appointment. Establishes communication chains such as e-mail distribution lists and any other checks that ensure correspondence is received and answered as needed.
- Receives suggestions and nominations; prepares lists of eligible lecturers and sends them to committee members.
- Answers all correspondence promptly, referring correspondence to the ALSC President, Priority Group Consultant, or Executive Director for reply when appropriate. Copies all procedural correspondence, not confidential discussion of lecture candidates, to committee members, to the ALSC Awards Coordinator, Executive Director, the ALSC President and Vice President, and to the Priority Group Consultant.
- Works with the ALSC Awards Coordinator to arrange committee discussion conference calls or meeting schedule so that it fits with the other award committees.
- Submits budget request for next committee (on request).
- Maintains financial records of committee’s expenses and requests a reimbursement from ALSC (all year). Refer to Division Leadership Manual for reimbursement limits and procedures.
- Prepares committee agendas and submits them to the ALSC Executive Director, President, Vice President, and Priority Group Consultant prior to meetings using the Agenda Cover Sheet form found in the Division Leadership Manual.
- Prepares committee reports and submits them to the ALSC Executive Director, President, Vice President, and Priority Group Consultant following meetings using the Post-Conference Committee Report Form found in the Division Leadership Manual.
- Contacts non-participating committee members and, if necessary, after consultation with Priority Group Consultant, ALSC President, suggests their resignation from the committee.
- Represents the committee at the Division Leadership Meeting and meetings of Priority Group III.
- Presents problems to Priority Group Consultant as needed.
First Midwinter Meeting

- This meeting is optional; if the committee chooses to meet the chair will work with the ALSC office ahead of time to arrange for a table at the ALSC All-Committee meeting.
- If the committee is to meet, chair prepares the agenda ahead of time and submits it to the ALSC Executive Director, President, Vice President, and Priority Group Consultant using the Agenda Cover Sheet form found in the Division Leadership Manual.
- If committee met, prepares committee report and submits it to the ALSC Executive Director, President, Vice President, and Priority Group Consultant using the Post-Conference Committee Report Form found in the Division Leadership Manual.
- If chair attends Midwinter, even if the Arbuthnot Committee chooses not to meet, the chair should attend the ALSC Division Leadership Meeting.

Between the First Midwinter Meeting and the First Annual Conference

- Chair works with ALSC office to solicit suggestions from the membership at large via the ALSC newsletter, blog, wiki, electronic discussion list, etc.
- If needed, chair works with ALSC office to arrange for a meeting room at Annual Conference.
- Chair prepares the agenda ahead of time and submits it to the ALSC Executive Director, President, Vice President, and Priority Group Consultant using the Agenda Cover Sheet form found in the Division Leadership Manual.
- Chair sends suggestion list to committee members.

First Annual Conference

- This meeting is virtual unless a room has been requested for discussions.
- Chair conducts meeting to determine 2 potential Lecturers.
- Chair determines who will prepare the press release for the announcement at the Youth Media Awards Press Conference during the following Midwinter Meeting.
- Chair should attend the ALSC Division Leadership Meeting.

Between the First Annual Conference and the Second Midwinter Meeting

- Chair secures commitment from Lecturer.
- Coordinates preparation of the press release and submits it to the ALSC office by 12/1.
- If committee wishes to meet at Midwinter, chair works with ALSC office to arrange a table at the ALSC All-Committee Meeting.
- If committee will meet, chair prepares agenda as above.

Second Midwinter Meeting

- This meeting is optional, and open.
- If committee met, prepares committee report and submits it to the ALSC Executive Director, President, Vice President, and Priority Group Consultant using the Post-Conference Committee Report Form found in the Division Leadership Manual.
- If chair attends Midwinter, even if the Arbuthnot Committee chooses not to meet, the chair should attend the ALSC Division Leadership Meeting.
- Chair (and members) may wish to attend the Youth Media Awards Press Conference to take a committee photo and hear the announcement.

Between the Second Midwinter Meeting and the Second Annual Conference

- Chair confirms with ALSC office if meeting room is needed, otherwise the committee meets virtual via conference call.
• Chair coordinates creation/revision of host site application and works with ALSC office to post it on the Web site and publicize the opportunity to apply via the ALSC newsletter, blog, electronic discussion list, etc.
• Chair prepares agenda as above.
• Chair sends applications to committee members.

The Second Annual Conference
• Chair confirms with ALSC office if meeting room is needed, otherwise the committee meets virtual via conference call.
• Chair conducts meeting to determine the host site.
• Chair makes sure information is delivered to the onsite ALSC office by noon on Sunday for the President’s announcement at the Membership Meeting, traditionally held on Monday.
• Chair determines who will write the press release announcing the site and submit it to the ALSC office for dissemination following the conference.
• Chair should attend the ALSC Division Leadership Meeting.
• Chair prepares committee report and submits it to the ALSC Executive Director, President, Vice President, and Priority Group Consultant using the Post-Conference Committee Report Form found in the Division Leadership Manual.
• Chair (and members) may wish to attend the Membership Meeting to hear the announcement.

Between the Second Annual Conference and Lecture
• Chair notifies site winner as well as nonselected sites.
• Chair notifies Lecturer of site.
• Chair acts as liaison between Lecturer and host institution.
• Chair sends letter of thanks to committee members.
• Chair sends letter of thanks to committee members’ supervisors.
• Prepare to attend Lecture!

APPENDICES
Appendix A: The May Hill Arbuthnot Honor Lecture Fact Sheet

May Hill Arbuthnot (1884-1969) was born in Mason City, IA, and graduated from the University of Chicago in 1922, receiving her master’s degree in 1924 from Columbia University. Along with educator William Scott Gray, she created and wrote the Curriculum Foundation Readers—better known as the "Dick and Jane" series—for children published by Scott, Foresman. Her greatest contribution to children’s literature, however, was her authorship of Children and Books, the first edition of which was published in 1947. In 1927, she joined the faculty of Case Western Reserve University, and there she met and married Charles Arbuthnot, an economics professor. She also served as editor of both Childhood Education and Elementary English. Her other works include The Arbuthnot Anthology of Children’s Literature and Children’s Books Too Good to Miss. To link Arbuthnot’s name with an oratory award makes perfect sense. When accepting the award in 1969, she recalled "that long stretch of years when I was dashing from one end of the country to the other, bringing children and books together by way of the spoken word." She also affirmed, "I am a strong believer in the efficacy of direct speech.... a forthright vigorous lecture can set fire to a piece of literature that had failed to come to life from the printed page." She was thrilled at the prospect of this award providing a forum for "new voices speaking with new insight and new emphasis in the field of children’s lectures." (Quote from The Arbuthnot Lectures, 1970-79, ALA/ALSC, 1980.)

The lecturer, announced at the ALA Midwinter Meeting, may be an author, critic, librarian, historian, or teacher of children’s literature, of any country, who shall prepare a paper considered to be a significant contribution to the field of children’s literature. Once the name is made public, institutions wishing to host the lecture may apply. A library school, department of education in college or university, or a children’s library system may be considered. This paper is delivered as a lecture each April, and is subsequently published in Children & Libraries, the journal of the Association for Library Service to Children. Scott, Foresman established the lecture series in 1969.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE HOST INSTITUTION

1. To act as host for the May Hill Arbuthnot Lectureship in April or early May 2014 (not to conflict with National Library Legislative Day dates), the date to be arranged at the mutual convenience of the lecturer and the host institution.

2. To arrange and pay for the all local expenses (lodging, meals, taxis, etc.) of the lecturer. If a display of the lecturer's published works (e.g., books, articles, etc.) is arranged, it will be at the host’s expense, not the lecturer's. The Arbuthnot Fund covers only the honorarium ($5,000) and travel expenses to and from the host city.

3. To arrange and pay for a reception, dinner, or other hospitality honoring the speaker following the lecture.

4. To prepare and distribute regional publicity. ALA will issue national press releases. Further local and regional publicity is the responsibility of the host institution, including production of any print program.

5. The lecturer is not to be invited to give any talks the week preceding the May Hill Arbuthnot Lecture at the host institution or in the immediate vicinity. The lecturer is responsible for presenting the Arbuthnot Lecture only. If applicable, autographing and sale of books may be arranged with the publisher by the host institution. Any other programs/events (other than those promoting the lecture) must be arranged with the lecturer's publisher(s) or agent, must be arranged with the lecturer's knowledge and permission, must be funded separately and must occur no sooner than one day following the lecture. All programs/events/activities must appear on a master schedule available in advance to the committee chair, the Association for Library Service to Children office, and the lecturer.

MAY HILL ARBUTHNOT HONOR LECTURE
CHECKLIST FOR HOST INSTITUTION

You are about to begin a season of planning that will culminate with the 2014 Arbuthnot Honor Lecture, an experience that we hope will be both challenging and stimulating.

The checklist that follows is based on the needs of ALSC and the experience of the previous Arbuthnot Lecture hosts. Its purpose is to clarify your responsibilities as host, to outline necessary procedures, and to provide a general timetable and a few essential dates.

ALSC’s Arbuthnot Honor Lecture Committee, its Chair, and the ALSC staff are available to help you whenever you wish for assistance. We depend upon you for regular communication, and we count on you to keep us (and through us, the rest of the organization) informed of your progress and your needs. Please don’t hesitate to call on us whenever you have questions or need help.

We wish you luck, and we will all look forward to your success in the spring!

I. Speaker Arrangements

1. Contact your steering committee and those responsible for confirming lecture hall use to set several mutually acceptable lecture dates in April or early May. Once potential dates have been selected a conference call will be schedule through the ALSC Awards Coordinator. The call will include the ALSC Arbuthnot Committee Chair, the ALSC office, and interested publishers. Firm date should be set no later than September 15th, and ideally, earlier.

2. After the date is confirmed with all concerned, write a letter of welcome to the speaker. Request information on travel plans.

3. Reserve speaker’s hotel room for nights preceding and following the lecture (see “general suggestions” below). Reserve a block of rooms in the same hotel for ALSC staff, ALSC President and publisher representatives. (Consult with the ALSC Awards Coordinator concerning how long the additional rooms should be reserved for these involved individuals for whom you are not financially responsible).

4. Arrange social activities for the speaker: meeting local librarians, representatives of co-sponsoring or cooperating groups, members of interested faculties, etc. Include sightseeing and interviews with local press, radio, or television to promote the lecture. Consider the speaker’s special interests. The speaker may not be invited or scheduled to do any other speech, program, or presentation in your region during the week prior to the Lecture. Additionally, work closely with the lecturer, or his/her scheduling representative to ensure the lecturer has enough “down time.”

5. When general schedule of events takes shape, write to speaker describing tentative arrangements and send brochures describing locality of the host institution. Make certain to keep the speaker informed of all plans. Consult the speaker concerning her/his preferences. Be sure to include information on who will be meeting speaker’s plane, how to reach local chairperson (at home and at work) in case of emergency or complications, how to make a phone call from the airport (if the speaker is foreign).

6. Meet the speaker at the airport.
7. Later, at lecturer’s convenience but before first scheduled function, plan a briefing session to go over the entire schedule, which should be typed out. Include the names and positions of people whom the speaker will meet at small gatherings.

8. General Suggestions:
   a. Allow for jet lag. If the speaker is coming in from a great distance, allow an extra day before the lecture.
   b. Schedule lightly; give the speaker time to recover from traveling before social activities begin. Allow plenty of private time during the period before the lecture. Save additional appointments until after the lecture has taken place. Plan for the speaker to have a quiet, private meal alone or with only one or two other program participants or guests before the lecture.
   c. Plan a practice session in the room where the lecture will be held to give the speaker a chance to try out the microphone, get a sense of the room, and check equipment for visuals, if any.

II. Local Arrangements and Program

Perhaps most important of all to your success is the organization of your steering committee or local planning group. This lectureship is held each year in a different location in order to involve the broadest possible spectrum of those working with children and literature. In the past, the most successful lectures have been those for which members of a number of groups in an area have cooperated to make the lecture a truly regional event. Encouragement of such cooperation among a variety of organizations, professions, and communities is one of your responsibilities.

The steering committee or local planning group will work with you on various aspects of the project and you should plan for regular communication among those involved. Make sure that those who endorsed your application, whether as co-hosts or by letter of support, are officially included in your plans and recognized in your publicity, and that no one who wishes to help is excluded. Such an experience will build relationships that will be alive and well long after the lecture is over.

1. Reserve auditorium or event space as soon as date is known.

2. Decide whether to hold reception, dinner, or some other form of hospitality honoring the speaker after the lecture. Once time and type of entertainment are decided, reserve the rooms, and arrange for catering, flowers, and other logistics. The ALSC President should be invited to all events involving the lecturer.

3. Get the following from the Arbuthnot Committee Chair or lecturer’s publisher as soon as possible for promotional purposes (no later than November 1st): (1) the exact title of the lecture as it should appear on the program, (2) a photograph of the lecturer, and (3) a biography of the lecturer.

4. If audio/visual equipment is required by the lecturer, make necessary arrangements to secure it. Pre-test the equipment and have operators available as needed.

5. Send ALSC Awards Coordinator and Chair of the Arbuthnot Committee the contact (person or website URL) for requesting ticket information by February 1st. Please include date, place, and time of lecture. Awards Coordinator will issue a press release announcing when tickets will be available and will send host site copy to use for local media outlets.
6. Circulate notices announcing the lecture no later than February 1st, and include information on how to obtain the free tickets. There are now online event registration services to help with your ticket registration and providing local arrangements information. One example is Event Brite, http://www.eventbrite.com/t/free-online-event-registration

   - The following information should be conveyed:
      i. Lecturer’s name
      ii. Lecture title
      iii. Date and time
      iv. Address of lecture site
      v. Request for a self-addressed, stamped envelope to mail tickets (if you will not hold on-site will call); provide date when tickets will be mailed; and cut-off date for requesting tickets (about two weeks before the lecture in order to get a count).
      vi. Map of the area, driving directions to lecture site from airport/rail terminal. Indicate parking options for lecture site.
      vii. Local hotel accommodations viii. Sightseeing (especially for those outside the area).

7. Create tickets and have them printed (about twice as many as anticipated audience) at least by March 15. Set aside tickets for ALSC, publisher, and local VIP’s who will attend. If you will not have on-site will call, tickets should be mailed about a month before the lecture. It is the host site’s responsibility to make tickets available for free of charge.

8. Target local publicity: local, state, and regional libraries; colleges and universities; parent and teacher associations; professional groups such as the American Association of University Women, International Reading Association; NAEYC, etc. Take advantage of scheduled meetings and mailings to announce the lecture.

9. Evaluate which local media contacts are most significant for the lecturer, e.g., TV, radio, book reviewers, general newspapers, and community or ethnic newspapers and organizations. Make personal contact with appropriate individuals at each place several months before lecture. Provide them with full biographical information on lecturer as well as other lecture details. Remember to follow up three to four weeks before actual lecture.

10. Decide program format (welcome, introductions, etc.) The ALSC Arbuthnot Committee Chair will introduce the Arbuthnot lecturer. The ALSC president will bring greetings from ALSC and ALA; the ALSC president will also recognize the ALSC executive director and the Arbuthnot Committee members. You[Host site] will introduce/recognize representative(s) from the lecturer’s publisher(s), local co-hosts and representatives of any sponsoring organization(s).

11. The lecturer is not required to take questions from the audience. This is entirely up to the host, lecturer and Chair. Contact past hosts to inquire how they decided to include this into their program, or not.

12. Drafts of all programs, poster, and other printed material should be confirmed with the ALSC Awards Coordinator (and publisher representative, if applicable) before such material is printed. Get programs printed at least two weeks before the lecture. The program should clearly identify the sponsoring organization(s) and the local co-host. Print at least 10% more programs than expected number of attendees; include in count 20 copies for ALSC files. Provide copies of the printed program to all platform participants as soon as they arrive.

- The ALSC office will create, print, and send an Arbuthnot Lecture brochure for each attendee that provides a history of the lecture, a list of past lecturers and lecture hosts. Please provide the office with the number of expected attendees at least one month prior to the event and an address to mail the brochures.

13. Arrange for ushers at the program and hosts for the reception or dinner.

14. Arrange for special parking for special guests. Arrange for traffic control for all lecture attendees, if necessary.

15. Arrange to have special out-of-town guests and platform participants met and taken to the airport or other terminal, if necessary. Be in close touch with ALSC Awards Coordinator and ALSC Arbuthnot Committee Chair concerning directly-involved individuals who will benefit from receiving a map, a tentative schedule, etc., in advance.

16. Arrange to have single copies of relevant published books by lecturer on display in the lecture hall or on the platform.

III. Essential Formalities

1. Copies of all correspondence concerning the lecture should be forwarded to the Chair of the Arbuthnot Lecture Committee and the ALSC Awards Coordinator. This is crucial to the committee’s function and the success of the lecture.

2. If the lecturer has one or more U. S. publishers, check with each to find out if they wish to attend. (As indicated on the application you filed in the spring, it is the responsibility of the host institution to provide any published works that are to be displayed.) If you wish to have lecturer autograph books for sale, arrange well in advance with your local bookstore(s). If this is not a possibility, write directly to the publishing house and arrange for books to be sent on consignment. Please do not request that the publisher(s) donate books.

3. Contact the ALSC Awards Coordinator to determine whether ALSC free materials or items for sale will be included in the arrangements for book sales, etc. The ALSC Arbuthnot Lecture brochure may be distributed at the lecture.

4. The host site and regional committee may not plan any formal appearance for the speaker other than the lecture and appointments to promote the lecture.

5. Lecture posters, lecture-connected publications, or lecture video or audio tapes or other lecture mementos may NOT be sold by the host site for fund raising purposes before, during, or following the lecture. The attendees should not feel they are solicited in any way to buy merchandise, tickets, subscriptions, etc. The ALSC Awards Coordinator will decide whether the collected Arbuthnot speeches or other ALSC publications will be sold at the ALSC Arbuthnot Lecture.

6. Please observe all deadlines.

7. Following the lecture (no later than three weeks after lecture), send a brief written report accompanied by a set of printed materials (ticket application, tickets, programs, all publicity) to both the Arbuthnot Committee Chair and the ALSC office.
Include a table of contents and a financial statement. Your report will be helpful to next year’s host as well as to the committee.

Sample Press Release Announcing the Lecturer

2013 (May Hill) Arbuthnot Honor Lecturer Michael Morpurgo

Children’s Laureate Michael Morpurgo will deliver the 2013 May Hill Arbuthnot Honor Lecture. The announcement was made today by the Association for Library Service to Children (ALSC), a division of the American Library Association (ALA), during the ALA Midwinter Meeting held Jan. 20 – 24, in Dallas.

“The author of more than 100 titles of humor, magic and realism, Morpurgo movingly captures the struggles faced by both children and animals during wartime,” stated 2013 Arbuthnot Committee Chair Susan J. Pine.

Born in England, Michael Morpurgo was teaching when he discovered the magic of storytelling and began writing. His books are noted for their imagination, power and grace. In 1976, he and his wife established the charity Farms for City Children. He is an officer of the Order of the British Empire and served as Britain’s third Children’s Laureate. His novel, “War Horse,” has wowed theater audiences in London and New York and movie audiences all over.

The lecturer, announced annually at the ALA Midwinter Meeting, may be an author, critic, librarian, historian or teacher of children’s literature, of any country, who shall prepare a paper considered to be a significant contribution to the field of children’s literature. This paper is delivered as a lecture each April, and is subsequently published in Children and Libraries, the journal of ALSC. Once the name is made public, institutions wishing to host the lecture may apply. A library school, department of education in a college or university, or a public library system may be considered.

Members of the 2013 Arbuthnot Honor Lecture Committee are: Chair Susan J. Pine, Forest Hills, N.Y.; Gratia Banta, Lane Public Library, Hamilton, Ohio; Carolyn Phelan, Northbrook (Ill.) Public Library; Victor Schill, Fairbanks Branch Library, Houston; and Rachael Vilmar, Eastern Shore Regional Library, Salisbury, Md.

More information on the Arbuthnot Honor Lecture can be found online at http://www.ala.org/alsc/awardsgrants/bookmedia/arbuthnothonor/arbuthnothonor

Applications to host the 2013 lecture will be available online from ALSC at http://www.ala.org/alsc/awardsgrants/bookmedia/arbuthnothonor/arbuthnothonor this spring.

Sample Press Release Announcing the Lecture Site

Nazareth College and the Youth Services Section of the New York Library Association chosen as site for 2013 Arbuthnot Lecture

The Association for Library Service to Children (ALSC) announced that the 2013 May Hill Arbuthnot Committee has chosen Nazareth College and the Youth Services Section of the New York Library Association in Rochester, N.Y. as the site of the 2013 May Hill Arbuthnot Honor Lecture featuring Michael Morpurgo. The honor lectureship will be tied to several other significant events for librarians and readers of children’s and young adult literature during Children’s Book Week and will kick off the 38th annual NYLA Youth Services Section’s Spring Conference on May 16, 2013.

“The Youth Services Section of the New York Library Association submitted an application that was carefully prepared and embodied incredible community collaboration from local library systems, colleges and even the Seneca Park Zoo,” said Arbuthnot Chair Susan Pine, “The lecture presents a wonderful opportunity for ALSC to partner with a vibrant state-wide library association.”

Morpurgo was chosen to be the 2013 May Hill Arbuthnot Honor Lecture presenter at the 2012 ALA Midwinter Meeting held Jan. 20-24 in Dallas. Born in England, Michael Morpurgo was teaching when he discovered the magic of storytelling and began writing. His books are noted for their imagination, power and grace. In 1976, he and his wife established the charity Farms for City Children. He is an Officer of the Order of the British Empire and served as Britain’s third Children’s Laureate. His novel, “War Horse,” has wowed theater audiences in London and New York and movie audiences all over.

The May Hill Arbuthnot Honor Lecture celebrates May Hill Arbuthnot, who served as a strong voice for children’s literature. Each year a lecturer is chosen who will prepare a paper considered to be a significant contribution to the field of children’s literature. This paper is delivered as a lecture each spring, and is subsequently published in Children & Libraries, the journal of ALSC. ALSC established the lecture series in 1969 with sponsorship from Scott, Foresman and Company. The lectureship is now funded by the ALSC May Hill Arbuthnot Honor Lecture Endowment, and administered by ALSC.

ALSC, a division of the ALA, is the world’s largest organization dedicated to the support and enhancement of library service to children. With a network of more than 4,000 children’s and youth librarians, literature experts, publishers and educational faculty, ALSC is committed to creating a better future for children through libraries. To learn more about ALSC visit www.ala.org/alsc.

Members of the 2013 Arbuthnot Honor Lecture Committee are: Chair Susan J. Pine, Forest Hills, N.Y.; Gratia Banta, Lane Public Library, Hamilton, Ohio; Carolyn Phelan, Northbrook (Ill.) Public Library; Victor Schill, Fairbanks Branch Library, Houston; and Rachael Vilmar, Eastern Shore Regional Library, Salisbury, Md.

Letter to Lecturer

March 19, 2012

Michael Morpurgo

Dear Michael:

I am thrilled to congratulate you on your selection as the 2013 May Hill Arbuthnot Lecture! The public announcement was made at the ALA Youth Media Awards Press Conference on Monday, January 23, 2012 during the Midwinter Meeting in Dallas, Texas.

The 2013 Arbuthnot Lecture site will be selected at the ALA Annual Conference, June 21-26, 2012, and a date suitable to both you and the host will be worked out shortly thereafter. The Lecture usually takes place in April. The Lecture carries a $1000 honorarium plus travel expenses.

To help you prepare, I have enclosed copies of some recent Lectures and a brochure about May Hill Arbuthnot and the Lecture that honors her legacy. According to the terms and criteria for the Lectureship, you were selected as “An individual of distinction who shall prepare and present a paper which shall be a significant contribution to the field of children’s literature.” You do not need to submit your Lecture to us in advance; however, ALSC does wish to print the Lecture in the fall 2013 issue of our journal, Children and Libraries. I’ve enclosed a copy of the permission form that we’ll need you to sign and return shortly after the Lecture date.

We are very much looking forward to this event! If you have any questions concerning the lecture, please feel free to contact me or Arbuthnot Committee Chair Susan Pine (akellman@verizon.net, 412-621-6584). Again, congratulations!

Sincerely,

Aimee Strittmatter

Dear Lisa:

Congratulations again on being named the host for the 2013 May Hill Arbuthnot Honor Lecture! I know the selection committee took great care in choosing Nazareth College and the Youth Services Section of the New York Library Association to host Michael Morpurgo, and that he is “thrilled and honoured” to deliver the lecture. You submitted an impressive application, and it should be a wonderful event.

I understand that the date of May 16, 2013 has been cleared as the official lecture date. We’ll touch base soon with a conference call with Arbuthnot Committee Chair Susan Pine and Philippa Perry. ALSC will issue a press release announcing your College as the selected host site. The release will appear in the “Breaking News” section of the ALSC website, and will appear in the September issue of our newsletter, ALSC Matters!

Enclosed is the Checklist and Responsibilities for Host Institutions, which should be helpful to you as you begin to plan. Please read it carefully and let me know if you have any questions. Also attached is the Host Site Agreement; please sign that and return a copy to me and to Susan Pine by September 3, 2012.

I will send under separate cover copies of the final host reports, to serve as examples for you, from the St. Louis County Library (Lois Lowry, 2011) and the Riverside (Calif.) County Library System (Kathleen T. Horning, 2010). Please return all of these materials when you are finished with them as they are our only copies. You may keep them until the lecture is delivered.

I look forward to working with you and will help in any way I can to assist you in planning an outstanding event. Please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions, and congratulations again!

Sincerely,

Caroline Jewell

Dear_______________________:

Thank you for submitting an application to host the May Hill Arbuthnot Honor Lecture. Unfortunately, yours was not among the winning applications, but we had an exceptional pool of candidates this year, and we hope you will consider applying again in the future.

We appreciate your interest in the Arbuthnot Lecture.

Sincerely,

Dear ____________,

Please accept our congratulations and gratitude for your support of __________________ during his/her term on the Association for Library Service to Children’s May Hill Arbuthnot Honor Lecture Committee.

This is an important assignment, as it helps to foster continued distinguished contributions to the field of children’s literature. As part of this committee, __________________ has helped to select a Lecturer to present a paper, and to select the location for this prestigious Lecture.

[Add a paragraph here about the Lecturer and host site, if desired]

Thank you again for your support during this selection process.

Sincerely,
