From CLA

Legislative Advocacy

- CLA is Connecticut's voice in the legislature, so by supporting CLA, you are making your voice heard in Hartford and in Washington.

Leadership Opportunity

- By joining a section or committee, you can have an even stronger voice in the activities and practices of CLA. Find out more about what the sections and committees do.

Financial Support

- As a member, you will receive significant discounts on professional development workshops and programs, as well as the annual conference. In addition, you are eligible for PEG (Proficiency Enhancement Grants) money, which can be used for any professional development activity. If you are an MLS and LTA student, you may also apply for scholarships from CLA. These scholarships are administered by the Career Development Committee.

Connect with Colleagues

- CLA offers a number of networking opportunities for you, from the Leadership Institute to informal meetups. And if you are interested in being mentored or mentoring someone, the Career Development Committee's Speed Mentoring Series is for you!

Be Recognized

- We know you do amazing things. And by joining CLA, you can support awards such as Outstanding Librarian, Intellectual Freedom, and Support Staff of the Year. If you'd like to help, you can also join the Awards Committee.
- NEW! In addition to these benefits related to the profession, CLA members can take advantage of two value-added benefits: Discounts on Long Term Care Insurance and Pet Insurance.

About ALA

The American Library Association (ALA) works for students by advocating for increased library funding and the ongoing development of the profession. Through our accreditation program, ALA ensures that the training you receive will prepare you for your chosen career.

Job Resources

ALA will help you with resources to find your first job and to remain competitive. ALA student members have access to the best network of career and professional development resources for library workers.

Divisions and Round Tables

You need more than classwork to be fully prepared for your career. Joining ALA divisions and round tables is an excellent way to build experience in your specialty by meeting and working with longtime professionals. Student members can take advantage of ALA resources like résumé review services, job placement events, and car & home insurance.

To learn more about ALA and our divisions or round tables, visit www.ala.org or call 1-800-645-2433, ext 5.

About CLA

Student members of the CLA enjoy all the member perks and privileges: discounted admission to workshops and conferences, access to members-only scholarships and funds for professional development, access to leadership opportunities in CLA special sections and committees, networking at association events, and more.

Your membership also helps CLA retain a lobbyist to represent libraries at the State level to help ensure the vitality of our profession.

Join today at the special rate and see how it's better as a member!

CLA Interest Groups

Sections and Committees are the interest groups and work groups that help move the Association toward its goals and provide easy opportunities for involvement.

Section:

Children's; CLASS (for Support Staff; College & University; Public Library; Reference & Adult Services; Resource Sharing; Technical Services; Technology; and Young Adult.

Committees:

ADA; Awards; Career Development; Conference; Customer Service; Development & Planning; Editorial; Intellectual Freedom; Legislative; Membership; PEG (educational grants); and Publicity.

Association bylaws address the creation and dissolution of these working groups.
