About ALA

The American Library Association (ALA) works for students by advocating for increased library funding and the ongoing development of the profession. Through our accreditation program, ALA ensures that the training you receive will prepare you for your chosen career.

Job Resources

ALA will help you with resources to find your first job and to remain competitive. ALA student members have access to the best network of career and professional development resources for library workers.

Divisions and Round Tables

You need more than classwork to be fully prepared for your career. Joining ALA divisions and round tables is an excellent way to build experience in your specialty by meeting and working with longtime professionals. Student members can take advantage of ALA resources like résumé review services, job placement events, and car & home insurance.

To learn more about ALA and our divisions or round tables, visit www.ala.org or call 1-800-645-2433, ext 5.

About ILA

The Idaho Library Association has members representing libraries of all sizes in all areas of the state. We are academic, public, and school librarians. We are trustees, retirees and friends. We are clerks, specialists, assistants, students and secretaries. Our interests are your interests: literacy, intellectual freedom, and library service for all Idaho citizens. Join ILA today and help us make great things happen for Idaho libraries!

ILA/ALA Joint Student Membership Program for Idaho Library school students. Students can join both Idaho Library Association AND the American Library Association for one low price of $38 a year! Join both state and national library associations and get connected to your future. Joint members are full members of both associations and receive all the benefits accorded to student members.

ALA benefits include 6 issues of American Libraries magazine, weekly e-delivery of AL Direct, bi-monthly delivery of AL Student Direct, discounts on ALA and division conferences, 10% discounts on ALA Editions and Graphics, access to the ALA Student Member Portal, and access to ALA scholarships, grants and travel opportunities.

ILA benefits will also include access to powerful and effective representation before state legislators and leaders by our ILA legislative team; leadership development and networking opportunities; discounts on ILA annual and regional conferences; access to the ILA membership directory; and access to ILA scholarships, grants and awards. Students can also join joint committees and work groups.

ILA Interest Groups

ILA Student Membership empowers you to participate in a wide range of professional issues, from standard library practices to emerging areas of innovation. ILA offers statewide divisions by library type and invites students to join ILA committees such as the Conference Committee, Legislative Committee, Social Justice Committee, Scholarships and Awards Committee and Idaho Book Award Committee.
