About ALA

The American Library Association (ALA) works for students by advocating for increased library funding and the ongoing development of the profession. Through our accreditation program, ALA ensures that the training you receive will prepare you for your chosen career.

Job Resources

ALA will help you with resources to find your first job and to remain competitive. ALA student members have access to the best network of career and professional development resources for library workers.

Divisions and Round Tables

You need more than classwork to be fully prepared for your career. Joining ALA divisions and round tables is an excellent way to build experience in your specialty by meeting and working with longtime professionals. Student members can take advantage of ALA resources like résumé review services, job placement events, and car & home insurance.

To learn more about ALA and our divisions or round tables, visit www.ala.org or call 1-800-645-2433, ext 5.

About MLA

Student members of the Maryland Library Association have a unique opportunity to broaden their experience out of the classroom and connect with the issues that affect our profession. Our membership consists of thousands of library professionals dedicated to the future of Maryland's libraries. Your membership gives you access to networking and leadership opportunities that will benefit your future.

Join MLA to learn about librarianship and information management in a "real world" context. Find a potential mentor as well as opportunities to serve your profession through committees and working groups. Your work life is accelerated through your membership in MLA.

MLA Interest Groups

Your joint membership provides access to a number of interest groups. The New Members Interest Group may be of particular interest to student members, though you will have access to groups that focus on different types of libraries, programming, and interests.
