About ALA

The American Library Association (ALA) works for students by advocating for increased library funding and the ongoing development of the profession. Through our accreditation program, ALA ensures that the training you receive will prepare you for your chosen career.

Job Resources

ALA will help you with resources to find your first job and to remain competitive. ALA student members have access to the best network of career and professional development resources for library workers.

Divisions and Round Tables

You need more than classwork to be fully prepared for your career. Joining ALA divisions and round tables is an excellent way to build experience in your specialty by meeting and working with longtime professionals. Student members can take advantage of ALA resources like résumé review services, job placement events, and car & home insurance.

To learn more about ALA and our divisions or round tables, visit www.ala.org or call 1-800-645-2433, ext 5.

About NHLA

Student members of the New Hampshire Library Association are invited to broaden their experience outside of the classroom connecting with the issues affecting our profession. Our membership includes over 600 people committed to the future of NH libraries.

Not only will your membership in NHLA provide possibilities for learning and networking, but NHLA has opportunities for you become involved and be a leader while earning your degree. NHLA members are encouraged to attend classes, workshops, & conferences, and actively participate in committee work. You can build your resume while serving the needs of the profession.

NHLA Interest Groups

As a member of NHLA, you will find a variety of interests to stimulate and empower you personally and professionally. In addition to being an NHLA member, many people find their home in our sections. These special interest areas include the Children's Librarians Section (CHILIS), Young Adult Librarians Section (YALS), Information Technology Section (ITS), Urban Libraries Section (ULAC), Reference & Adult Services Section (READS), and a Paralibrarian Section. Our committees include Legislative, Advocacy, Membership, Awards, Scholarship, Continuing Education, Intellectual Freedom, Conference Planning, and By-Laws.
