About ALA

The American Library Association (ALA) works for students by advocating for increased library funding and the ongoing development of the profession. Through our accreditation program, ALA ensures that the training you receive will prepare you for your chosen career.

Job Resources

ALA will help you with resources to find your first job and to remain competitive. ALA student members have access to the best network of career and professional development resources for library workers.

Divisions and Round Tables

You need more than classwork to be fully prepared for your career. Joining ALA divisions and round tables is an excellent way to build experience in your specialty by meeting and working with longtime professionals. Student members can take advantage of ALA resources like résumé review services, job placement events, and car & home insurance.

To learn more about ALA and our divisions or round tables, visit www.ala.org or call 1-800-645-2433, ext 5.

About PaLA

Student members of the Pennsylvania Library Association have a unique opportunity to broaden their experience outside of the classroom and connect with the issues that affect our profession. Our membership includes thousands of library professionals dedicated to the future of Pennsylvania libraries. Your membership offers access to the networking opportunities that will benefit your work life and connect you with your future. Join PaLA and learn about librarianship and information management in "real world" context. Find a mentor and be exposed to a wide variety of libraries and library issues. Student members are called upon not only to learn, but to lead. Your work life is accelerated through your membership in PaLA. You'll have hundreds of opportunities through committees and work groups to build your résumé while serving the needs of the profession.

PaLA Interest Groups

Please contact PaLA at 717-766-7663 or visit http://www.palibraries.org/general/register\_member\_type.asp after your application for membership has been confirmed to find out more about the opportunities for involvement in divisions, chapters, and round tables. There is something of interest for all librarians whether in a public, academic, or special library setting.
