About ALA

The American Library Association (ALA) works for students by advocating for increased library funding and the ongoing development of the profession. Through our accreditation program, ALA ensures that the training you receive will prepare you for your chosen career.

Job Resources

ALA will help you with resources to find your first job and to remain competitive. ALA student members have access to the best network of career and professional development resources for library workers.

Divisions and Round Tables

You need more than classwork to be fully prepared for your career. Joining ALA divisions and round tables is an excellent way to build experience in your specialty by meeting and working with longtime professionals. Student members can take advantage of ALA resources like résumé review services, job placement events, and car & home insurance.

To learn more about ALA and our divisions or round tables, visit www.ala.org or call 1-800-645-2433, ext 5.

About TLA

Student membership in the Tennessee Library Association can open doors to communities and opportunities far beyond those available in the classroom.

Students are strongly encouraged to present at TLA conferences, publish in Tennessee Libraries (the Associations refereed journal), and serve on the Board of Directors.

While students bring fresh perspective and expertise, seasoned members offer the wisdom of experience and potential for mentoring and developing leadership skills. Opportunities to teach and learn are invaluable to emerging careers and building résumés.

MLS/MLIS students may apply for the Edwin S. Gleaves Scholarship and for paid internships at the TLA Annual Conference, and can receive discounted registration for the TLA Annual Conference.

TLA Interest Groups

With colleagues from a variety of libraries across the state, students can explore areas of interest including Children and Young Adults Services, Library Technologies, Government Documents, Library Instruction, and Library Leadership.
