About ALA

The American Library Association (ALA) works for students by advocating for increased library funding and the ongoing development of the profession. Through our accreditation program, ALA ensures that the training you receive will prepare you for your chosen career.

Job Resources

ALA will help you with resources to find your first job and to remain competitive. ALA student members have access to the best network of career and professional development resources for library workers.

Divisions and Round Tables

You need more than classwork to be fully prepared for your career. Joining ALA divisions and round tables is an excellent way to build experience in your specialty by meeting and working with longtime professionals. Student members can take advantage of ALA resources like résumé review services, job placement events, and car & home insurance.

To learn more about ALA and our divisions or round tables, visit www.ala.org or call 1-800-645-2433, ext 5.

About WLA

WLA engages, inspires and advocates for library workers and supporters to improve and promote library services for the people of Wisconsin. As a student, join to broaden your experience outside of the classroom. Learn about librarianship and information management in "real world" context and be exposed to a wide variety of libraries and library issues. Student members are called upon to not only learn, but to lead. Your work life is accelerated through your membership in WLA. You'll have many opportunities through committees and work groups to build your résumé while serving the needs of the profession.

WLA Interest Groups

Your joint student membership entitles you to participate in various WLA interest groups. WLA membership includes one complimentary division and two sections or round tables. Please respond to the welcome email once your membership has been confirmed to add interest groups to your profile.
