Learn. Connect. Advance. Become an ALA Student Member

Even before you graduate, career planning is Job #1, and ALA is here to help. ALA offers resources to support you now and throughout your career. ALA membership and participation help you build marketable skills beyond the classroom. Connecting with experienced professionals is invaluable to your career. If you only use one member resource, it should be ALA’s premier employment and job search and placement resources.

RELEVANT RESOURCES AND BENEFITS

- Connections and Colleagues. You’ll meet new colleagues and friends to share, create, and work with on topics and issues that matter to you – in person, through social media, and via ALA Connect.

- Numerous Free and Discounted Publications. Receive the latest news about developments that affect libraries, along with the informed analysis and advice you need for your career.

- ALA Divisions and Round Tables. You will find the resources you need and the professional community you want through ALA Divisions and Round Tables. Connect with others in your areas of interest and specialization.

- Discounted Products and Services. Save money on a variety of products and services as you grow and learn throughout your career.

JOINT MEMBERSHIPS AND STUDENT CHAPTERS ON CAMPUS

- Joint Membership with state library associations is available for students who live or study in participating states. For one discounted price of $42, student joint members receive full membership in both their state association and in ALA. Currently 43 state library association participate in this program. See if your state offers joint membership at www.ala.org/aboutala/joint-membership-program.

- Student Chapters of ALA exist at many MLIS programs, giving you the opportunity to help jump start your professional connections on campus. Check with your school to see if there is a student chapter or go to www.ala.org/aboutala/affiliates/chapters/student/studentchapters1.
