Intellectual Freedom Highlights READ MORE

- The Art of the Challenge | Intellectual Freedom Blog; "Challenges to books occasionally occur in academic libraries, but artwork is a more frequent target of challenges in academic libraries. I recently interviewed John Harer, an associate professor of library science at East Carolina University. In the 1990s he was working at Texas A&M when students launched a complaint about a piece of artwork that was hanging near the entrance of the library."
- Why is Intellectual Freedom Important? | Intellectual Freedom Blog; "Why is intellectual freedom important? Beyond my role as a librarian, why do I care about intellectual freedom and free speech? The list of things that come to mind immediately are about education, exploration, growth and finding one's personal truth. "
