

Seeking feedback on Meeting Rooms interpretation

Library
BILL of RIGHTS

The Intellectual Freedom Committee would appreciate feedback from the library community on a revised draft of "Meeting Rooms: An Interpretation of the Library Bill of Rights." ALA members and non-members alike are invited to provide feedback on the draft interpretation by September 14, 2018.

Read message from IFC chair...

Join the Dear Banned Author letter-writing campaign

Dear Banned Author encourages readers to write to banned or challenged authors during Banned Books Week (September 23-29), sharing how their stories made a difference. Libraries are invited to host letter-writing programs; this webpage includes promotional tools, printable postcards, and a list of banned and challenged author addresses and Twitter handles.

Learn more about Banned Books Week programs...

Last chance to order Banned Books Week print materials

This year's Banned Books Week theme is "Banning Books Silences Stories. Speak Out!" Order print materials by September 12 to get them in time using standard shipping.

Shop Banned Books Week Materials

Will we see you in Seattle?

Early Bird Registration and Housing for the 2019 ALA Midwinter Meeting will open Wednesday, September 12 at 12 Noon (Central).

Plan your conference...

Free webinar on LGBTQ+ materials in school libraries

Join members of the 2018 AASL Emerging Leaders team as they discuss AASL's new Resource Guide Defending Intellectual Freedom: LGBTQ+ Materials in School Libraries. Presenters will also discuss proactive steps school librarians can take to build and safeguard LGBTQ+-inclusive collections, instruction, and spaces.

Sign up for the free webinar...

INTELLECTUAL FREEDOM
ROUNDTABLE

ALA American Library Association

Click here to opt out of receiving IFRT emails.

Click here to unsubscribe from all American Library Association emails.

American Library Association Privacy Policy

American Library Association, 50 East Huron Street, Chicago, IL 60611

