

BRASS BUSINESS EXPERT PRESS AWARD

Established in 2012, the BRASS Business Expert Press Award presents a citation and $1,250* to an individual new to the field of academic business librarianship in order to support attendance to the ALA Annual Conference.

The winner does not need to be a member of ALA, RUSA, and/or BRASS but preference will be given to those that are members. Applicants should be an academic librarian with five or fewer years of experience in business librarianship or be a new (less than five years) member to BRASS. The applicant should exhibit evidence of or interest in a career as an academic business reference librarian as demonstrated by activities that may include (but are not limited to) past coursework, internships, jobs, special projects, and publications. The nominee's financial need will also be considered. This award is made possible by the generous support of Business Expert Press.

*Monetary award amounts are subject to change without notice and are contingent upon donor funding supplied at the time the award is presented.
