

ALA American Library Association

Office for Intellectual Freedom

Date

1. What are you reporting?

Materials Challenge (books, movies, music, magazines)

Internet-related Challenge (filtering issues, access to computers, use policies)

Library Service (meeting rooms, programs, author visits, exhibits, hold shelf practices)

Patron Privacy or Confidentiality Issue (personally identifiable information, circulation records)

Hate Crime (defacement of library property to target a specific group, use of swastikas or other symbols of intimidation, harassment or assault on library property)

Other

Type of Item

Author or Performer

Title

Additional Items

2. Please describe the incident.

3. When did this happen?

4. Who initiated the challenge or raised the issue?

5. Why did the initiator say this was of concern?

6. What state did this happen in?

7. Where did the issue or challenge occur?

Public Library

School Library

School Curriculum

Other

8. Name of Institution where the issue/challenge took place

9. May ALA have your permission to disclose additional information in our public reports?

Yes

No

10. How can we help you?

How can we reach you?

Name

E-mail

Phone

If you have questions or would like to report the challenge over the phone, don't hesitate to call 1-800-545-2433 x4226 or email oif@ala.org.