Who uses the library?

Everybody is welcome to use the Franklin Community Library—"community" includes the public, wherever they live, and students.

Invitations for You:

- Join the Franklin Community Library Friends and support your local library (membership forms are at the Information Desk).
- Recycle your magazines and paperback books by bringing them to the library.
- Donate your used books for the Friends book sales. The next sale is Saturday, October 28, 1-4 p.m.

Library Program for Adults

Internet Workshop: Saturday, November 4, 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. Donna Walker and others will present how to (1) use Sacramento Library Online, (2) Google the internet, (3) copy and print internet information.

This workshop requires pre-registration and has limited enrollment. To register for the workshop online, go online to www.saclibrary.org and then go to "programs & events" for the Franklin Library on November 4, and then complete the Event Registration form. Or go to the library Information Desk and request online registration help.

Library Program for Family

Friends Open House: Saturday, December 2, 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. The Friends of the Franklin Library will hold "Open House" in the Community Room. There will be displays of Friends activities, music provided by students from Franklin High School, as well as refreshments made by the Friends of the Library. This afternoon is a "Thank You" to the patrons of the Franklin Community Library for their use and support of the library.

Friends Book Sale Set for Saturday, October 28 — 1 to 4 p.m.

The Franklin Community Library Friends will hold a sale of used books in the Community Room of the library on Saturday, October 28. The sale books were donated to the library by individuals. The sales provide funding to support special library programs during the year for all ages, and various youth programs during the summer.

A large number of hardback books and paperback books will be available as well as many children's books.

Home-made goodies will also be available for purchase along with drinks.
