

SCHOOL LIBRARIANS TAKE A STARRING ROLE IN THE CCSS

Be a Star in Reading Comprehension!

© 2014 tagxedo.com

IMPROVED
READING SCORES

CLASSROOM & LIBRARY
COLLABORATIVE PLANNING & TEACHING

STATE CERTIFIED
SCHOOL LIBRARIAN

STELLAR SKILLS
For a Common Core
State Standards
School Librarian

Make These Central to Reading Instruction*

To align your school library program with the CCSS, weave these strategies into your instruction.

inquiry provides an opportunity to apply reading comprehension strategies

| INQUIRY PHASES: | INQUIRY PROVIDES OUR OPPORTUNITY TO APPLY ALL THE SHIFTS: |
|--------------------|---|
| Motivation/Connect | Activating or building background knowledge |
| Question - Plan | Questioning |
| Investigate | Determining main ideas |
| Construct | Making predictions and drawing inferences |
| Present | Synthesizing |
| Evaluation/Reflect | Defining/Refining the purpose for reading |

What do YOU need to know about your role in teaching reading as outlined in the CCSS?

Increase what you already do well in support of literacy

The AASL Standards for the 21st Century Learner are based on Inquiry Learning: Downloadable for free at: www.ala.org/aasl/standards

To be a CCSS star, a school librarian must rise to the challenge. Be STELLAR by:

Knowing reading strategies and modeling them for students.

Being able to talk with and work with classroom teachers who are focused on improving reading proficiency.

Knowing and using the alignment between reading comprehension strategies and inquiry learning in collaborative planning.

Coteaching reading comprehension strategies as part of inquiry learning.

Being a learner. Using assessment. Using data.

© 2014 tagxedo.com

* For the improved reading scores: See the Library Research Service Impact Studies: <http://tinyurl.com/lrs-impact>

 For more information about teaching reading comprehension, link to the AASL School Librarian's Role in Reading Position Statement and Toolkit: <http://tinyurl.com/aasl-reading>

 Table that aligns inquiry and reading comprehension strategies developed by Judi Moreillon

Implementing the Common Core State Standards: The Role of the School Librarian from Achieve and AASL: <http://tinyurl.com/CCSSLibrarian>

