

American Library Association
Resolutions Committee Report to Council
Annual Conference 2019—Washington, DC

The Resolutions Committee published, Resolutions 101: Getting Things Done in the December Preview version of Cognotes distributed at the Midwinter 2019 conference in Seattle Washington.

At Midwinter Council approved the Committee resolution, Resolution Proposing a Task Force on Online Deliberation and Voting which will report at Council III at Annual.

Revised Councilor Training

Working in response to Councilor feedback after the Midwinter meeting and at the request of ALA leadership and the Council Orientation Committee, the Resolutions Committee met online in May to revamp our portion of the New and Existing Councilor Orientation training including:

- Streamlined Form and Content guidelines for resolution writing
- Simplified resolutions guidelines pointing out the unique aspects of each type of resolution
- Role playing for orientation participants designed to demystify the amendment process, encourage confidence at the mic, and clarify the resolution lifecycle.
- Discussion of the Top 10 Issues that Confuse Council, including the 24 Hour Rule, Wordsmithing, and Friendly Amendments.

The new training materials will be piloted at ALA Annual, revised based upon feedback, and posted to the Resolutions website for outside conference use.

Councilor Mentoring Program

The Resolutions Committee will also be offering opportunities for Council members to mentor new or interested councilors in the creation of resolutions and related Council protocol. If you would like to participate in this program as a mentor or mentee there is a sign-up sheet at the back of Council chambers. Mentors will be provided with a best-practices checklist with references.
