ALA Committee on the Status of Women in Librarianship (COSWL)

Report – June 2022

COSWL members worked as a strong team to present six events about topics of interest to women in librarianship, and to keep COSWL’s Facebook page updated. Members and ALA staff liaison started a new Twitter page. At the beginning of the year, members conducted an internal survey to identify issues of interest to women in librarianship. Webinars’ themes were based on the survey. COSWL’s webinar “Saying No: Harassment in the Library” was presented in conjunction with ACRL’s Women and Gender Studies Section and with SRRT’s Feminist Task Force which also collaborated to identify content for the event. COSWL members also reviewed ALA-APA Wellness page to add new resources. Big thanks to ALA Staff Liaison Beatrice Calvin for her support.
