

Memorial Resolution Honoring Peggy Sullivan

Whereas the American Library Association (ALA) and the library community lost a valued member, colleague and leader on April 13, 2020, with the death of Peggy Sullivan.

Whereas Peggy Sullivan was among the very few to have served both as President of the American Library Association (1980/81) and as its Executive Director (1992 – 1994).

Whereas her career included service as Dean, Graduate School of Library and Information Science, Rosary College (1995-1997), Director and Professor, University Libraries, Northern Illinois University (1990-1992), Dean and Professor, College of Professional Studies, Northern Illinois University (1981-1990), Assistant Commissioner, Chicago Public Library (1977–1981), Dean of Students, University of Chicago Graduate Library School (1974-1977).

Whereas her professional activities included service as President of ALA's Children's Services Division (now the Association for Library Service to Children – ALSC) (1976–1977) and Chair of the Centennial Celebration of the American Library Association (1976).

Whereas one of her enduring interests was reflected in both her service to librarians providing service to children including her service as Director of the Knapp School Libraries Project (1963 – 1968).

Whereas that interest led to her creation of the Sullivan Award for Public Library Administrators which is an award presented annually to an individual who has shown exceptional understanding and support of public library service to children while having general management/supervisory/administrative responsibility that has included public library service to children in its scope.

Whereas she also presented the Sullivan Award to a faculty member in the NIU (Northern Illinois University) College of Health and Human Sciences for achievement in research.

Whereas she was the 1991 recipient of ALA's Joseph W. Lippincott Award, Distinguished Alumnus Award, School of Library from Catholic University, the Distinguished Alumnus Award from Clarke College, and the Distinguished Service Award, Association for Library Service to Children (2000).

Whereas she earned her undergraduate degree at Clarke College in Dubuque Iowa, her Master's degree in library science from Catholic University in Washington D.C., and a Doctorate from the University of Chicago Graduate Library School.

Whereas she was the author of numerous professional books and articles on Library Science as well as two books of fiction.

Whereas she had visited not only every one of our fifty states but also every continent.

Whereas she was recognized with Honorary Membership in the American Library Association in 2008.

Whereas she attended and was an active participant at ALA conferences up to and including ALA Midwinter 2020 attending many division and roundtable events; and

Whereas her leadership, energy, and vision inspired several generations of library workers with her humor, dedication, approach-ability and interest in meeting people at all levels making her an exceptional colleague and mentor, now, therefore, be it

Resolved that the American Library Association (ALA), on behalf of its members:

1. recognizes the significant contributions of Peggy Sullivan over the course of her career and mourns her death; and
2. extends its sincerest condolences to her friends and family.
