Resources: Links to Sites in Printed Chapters One through Seventeen

This section contains URLs for sites listed in all chapters that appear in the print sections of the volume. Due to time constraints in obtaining permission for each and every link cited in this book, the editor chose to use links contained in PDFs mounted on an ACRL web site for the reader to use in a browser. Excluded were any links to proprietary sites (e.g., Lexis-Nexis, Wilson's Full Text Library Literature.) In cases where the site was part of a block of recommended sites in the chapter, yet not listed in the references, no date was listed for retrieval. All other site URLs have the most recent retrieval dates.

As this book went to press, the posting of URL changes coincided with the timing of many URL changes (January and June.) This update shows sites that are current as of April, 2006. Sites that are no longer maintained are so noted in this posting through bracketing the site name [Site Name] with the note: "Link no longer active". One further update is planned for late 2006-early 2007 for this book's URLs. Readers who have information about changes are encouraged to report such to Patricia O'Brien Libutti, Editor, libutti@rci.rutgers.edu.
