

Sample Social – American Rescue Plan, Library Relief Funding

You can use our sample social media messages below to thank your Members of Congress for passing the American Rescue Plan, which includes $200 million for libraries to the Institute of Museum and Library Services (IMLS), as well as broadband funding and state/local/Tribal aid. Remember to tag your Members of Congress where appropriate, and feel free to edit these posts to personalize them for your community!

The #AmericanRescuePlan includes $200 million for @US_IMLS, the largest single increase in IMLS funding in history! Thank you @[Your Members of Congress] for keeping #LibrariesStrong!

From broadband access to telehealth, patrons rely on libraries for critical resources every day. Thank you @[Your Members of Congress] for passing the #AmericanRescuePlan and including $200 million for @US_IMLS!

Our nation's libraries have provided countless services to communities during the pandemic - Congress has now approved $200 million in funding for @US_IMLS! Thank you @[Your Members of Congress] for keeping #LibrariesStrong!

The #AmericanRescuePlan sets aside $200 million for @US_IMLS, a critical measure to support vital services for patrons nationwide. Thank you @[Your Members of Congress] for keeping #LibrariesStrong!

With $200 million in @US_IMLS funding, additional money for broadband and device purchases, as well as local/state/Tribal aid, the #AmericanRescuePlan will help keep #LibrariesStrong. Thank you @[Your Members of Congress] for including library relief!