

American Library Association Organizational Membership

Your library has a unique opportunity through Organizational Membership in the American Library Association (ALA) to have your concerns about legislation, funding, library use, and advocacy heard at a national level. Organizational Members know that ALA focuses on issues that are important to libraries and library staff. Joining ALA is a benefit to your organization and a voice in the future of America's libraries.

ALA works through the @ your library campaign® to increase public awareness about the value of libraries to our communities. Organizational Members can take advantage of many ALA programs and events to help expand staff skills and services. Aligning your organization with ALA provides your library with discounts on ALA resources like our professional publications, employment and management resources, and affiliated insurance programs. Public, High School, and Community Colleges receive free Oprah Book Club® selections as a key benefit.

To become an Organizational Member of the American Library Association or to learn more about specific programs, services, and member benefits, please call 800-545-2433, ext. 5 for our Member and Customer Service Center (888-814-7692 TDD); visit www.ala.org/membership; email membership@ala.org; or mail the attached application to:
