@your library®

The American Library Association (ALA) works for library support staff by advocating for your concerns —library funding, access to job banks, new professional resources, and development for all library workers. ALA has worked steadily for inclusion of library workers in all types of libraries, from public to academic to school and corporate. Membership in ALA will ensure that you have access to the resources you need to pursue your career with a voice in the ongoing growth and development of the profession.

Your interests are represented by a number of ALA Divisions and Round Tables. You can join an ALA Division or Round Table to align yourself with other library workers who have similar interests and goals. Our Library Support Staff Interests Round Table (LSSIRT) provides you with a way to become immediately involved, helping you to make the most of your membership. Your ALA Membership includes subscriptions to premier professional journals and discounts on conferences and continuing education opportunities. Health, dental, and life insurance is also available to ALA Library Support Staff members.

To become a Library Support Staff Member of the American Library Association or to learn more about specific programs, services, and member benefits, please call 800-545-2433, ext 5 for our Member and Customer Service Center (888-814-7692 TDD); visit www.ala.org/membership; email membership@ala.org; or mail the attached application to:
