10:05:54 From Elly Serrano, ALSC Staff to Everyone : Friendly reminder, if you'd like your comment to be viewed by all please select "All panelists and attendees" in the chat window. :)

10:05:58 From Rosa Haire to All panelists : Hello from NYC! I sadly had to cancel a trip to Berlin this year, love it there!

10:06:26 From Rachel Pecotte to All panelists : Hello from TX

10:07:02 From Melody Ezik to Everyone : Hello from Jacksonville, Florida! ^_^

10:07:19 From Elizabeth Helms to Everyone : Hello from Ohio! :)

10:07:26 From Sharon Rawlins to Everyone : Hello from NJ!

10:07:33 From Marianne Martens to Elizabeth Helms and all panelists : Hi Beth!

10:07:45 From Jasmine Cedeno to All panelists : Hello from CT!

10:07:55 From Elizabeth Helms to Everyone : Hi Dr. Martens!!! :)

10:08:00 From Gina De alwis to Everyone : Hello from Sri Lanka / Singapore

10:08:42 From Raychelle Steele to Everyone : Hello everyone, so glad to have you all! Please post any questions in the chat and we will get to as many as we can at the end.

10:08:49 From Sherrie Wallace to Everyone : Good morning from Tulsa, Oklahoma.

10:09:08 From Wayne Walters to All panelists : Hello from New York Public Library in NYC!

10:09:55 From Tristan Mioduszewski to Everyone : Hello from Killingly, CT!

10:10:54 From Tanya DiMaggio to All panelists : Hello from Louisiana!

10:11:10 From Debbie Fulmer to Everyone : Question for Jorun: Is the 1-year school librarian education at Agder in *addition* to a bachelor's degree, or instead of one? Can you get a bachelor's degree in something else, and still get a master's degree in library science?

10:11:14 From Sharon Rawlins to Everyone : Wow. I love that - that it's truly only for children.

10:11:29 From Beth Crist to Everyone : Good morning from Denver! (and hi, Sharon!)

10:11:30 From Anton Purnick to Everyone : <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=956kDcql6A>

10:11:42 From Anton Purnick to Everyone : Here is our video from this library

10:14:14 From Elly Serrano, ALSC Staff to Everyone : Today's session is being recorded and any available files (including chat) will be shared as well.

10:14:16 From Jane Meyers to Everyone : Could the link please be put into this chat to that article that Jorun just discussed?

10:14:29 From Hannah Monson to Everyone : <http://www.informationr.net/ir/26-1/paper889.html>

10:14:57 From Raychelle Steele to Everyone : Thank you, Hannah!

10:15:32 From Jane Meyers to Everyone : Thank you!

10:15:48 From Lisa Rand to Everyone : Hello from Pennsylvania. Can you tell us if there is a strong public support for library services for young people? Is the work valued by local communities? It seems so, from the lovely Oslo library.

10:17:44 From Jasmine Cedeno to All panelists : Do the libraries of the featured panelists require bilingual or any kind of language skills?

10:19:01 From Raychelle Steele to Everyone : Here is the link that Jorun mentioned from the last slide: <http://library.ifla.org/2586/1/274-systad-en.pdf>

10:19:16 From Sami Espenschied to Everyone : @Jorun: We are a mid-size public library in NW Arkansas. Our Children's Director has been considering purchasing cushions for the children to sit on has seen on your slide for when we resume programming. Have you (or others) used these successfully for social distancing of children?

10:19:58 From Karen Van Drie to Everyone : Inviting all to follow @GlobalLitIn on Twitter and @GlobalLitInLibs on Facebook. Global Literature in Libraries Initiative works to get more of the world's literature into English-language libraries.

10:20:16 From Kelley Johnson to All panelists : Thank you!

10:20:20 From Tricia Dean to All panelists : Thank you, Jorun!

10:20:21 From Heather Reinold to Everyone : Thank you Jorun!

10:20:22 From Sharon Rawlins to Everyone : Thank you Jorun! (and hi, Beth!).

10:20:32 From Rebecca Smyth to All panelists : @Jorun Systad, based on your description of your municipality it sounds more rural. For rural communities in the US, there is often a disparity as compared to suburban or city communities of having a strong internet connection to access library services from home. Do you find the same thing to be true in your community?

10:20:52 From Juliet Smith to Everyone : Thank you Jorun.

10:20:53 From Karen Van Drie to Everyone : Thank you, Jorun! Thank you for your service to international librarianship.

10:20:55 From Hillary DeVincenzo to Everyone : Thank you Jorun! Norway has beautiful library spaces and you have such an obvious passion for your work!

10:20:57 From Janice People to All panelists : Libraries are community centers. We are so much more than books.

10:21:00 From Debbie Fulmer to Everyone : Tusen Tak, Jorun! (Sorry, that's Danish, I think.)

10:21:38 From Juliet Smith to Everyone : Beautiful library!

10:21:47 From Karen Van Drie to Everyone : Wow! How cool is that? I've never heard this story before.

10:22:17 From Sharon Rawlins to Everyone : Me, either. Sounds like it should be a children's story.

10:22:30 From Karen Van Drie to Everyone : Great idea, Sharon!!!

10:23:12 From Raychelle Steele to Everyone : It really is. This is so wonderful!

10:23:44 From Sharon Rawlins to Everyone : Benjamin, what are Tonies? I'm not familiar with that.

10:25:02 From Debbie Fulmer to Everyone : Sharon: I think this? <https://us.tonies.com>

10:25:03 From Rosa Haire to All panelists : Is Wifi access socialized or subsidized in your respective countries? Of course, here in the US, libraries here are widely used to lessen the digital divide.

10:25:03 From Marianne Martens to Everyone : Tonies are a type of audio devices for stories and songs <https://tonies.de/toniebox/>

10:25:25 From Sharon Rawlins to Everyone : Thank you Debbie & Marianne!

10:26:02 From Daniela Skokovic to All panelists : <https://www.amazon.co.uk/Bridge-Childrens-Books-Autobiography-Remarkable/dp/0862787831>

10:26:21 From Debbie Fulmer to Everyone : Benjamin: since you have so many more resources at your library, do you lend items to the more local libraries, that might not have those items?

10:26:22 From Daniela Skokovic to All panelists : I like to recommend this book!

10:26:24 From Tina Birkholz to Everyone : We are looking into adding Tonies to our collection

10:26:52 From Sami Espenschied to Everyone : @Tina Birkholz: What are Tonies?

10:27:07 From Tina Birkholz to Everyone : See above - someone added the link

10:27:09 From Marianne Martens to Everyone : See chat above re: Tonies

10:27:17 From Sami Espenschied to Everyone : Thanks

10:29:21 From Heike Schmidt to All panelists : FAMI not only in public libraries. In scientific libraries too

10:29:51 From Heather Reinold to Everyone : That's amazing! Congrats on your long-term success Benjamin!

10:30:41 From Marianne Martens to Everyone : @Heike - that is so interesting!

10:30:57 From Ludy Rueda to Everyone : @Benjamin, your story is inspiring! Thanks for sharing!

10:31:44 From Rebecca Smyth to All panelists : @Benjamin, thank you for your years of commitment to the field

10:32:04 From Sharon Rawlins to Everyone : Benjamin, I totally agree with you on the meaningfulness of this job. Congratulations on all you're success.

10:32:22 From Marianne Martens to Everyone : At Kent State we made Research and Assessment a required course for this reason.

10:32:46 From Mei Choong to Everyone : @Benjamin. Thanks for the tips on statistics learning. I'm trying to figure it out now as a student.

10:33:04 From Tricia Dean to All panelists : Thank you, Benjamin!

10:33:11 From elizabeth maggio to All panelists : professional development and continuing education is soooo important!

10:33:15 From Juliet Smith to Everyone : Thank you Benjamin.

10:34:22 From Lisa Rand to Everyone : Benjamin, it sounds like your programs for teens are diverse and reach a wide range of topics. Are these mostly staff-designed or teen-led activities?

10:36:50 From Melody Ezik to Everyone : Ooh—neat!

10:37:04 From Eric Arenas to All panelists : Great

10:37:06 From Marianne Martens to Everyone : Benjamin just wrote this to Lisa: Both - we often start with staff-designed activities, sometimes with external partners, and then involve the participants. We were developing more teen-led activities but were stopped by the pandemic. Right now we are starting to re-design our young adults library programs.

10:37:31 From Debbie Fulmer to Everyone : Do any local libraries have these special things for young adults, or only the main state library in Moscow?

10:37:51 From Heike Schmidt to All panelists : Great

10:38:07 From Sami Espenschied to Everyone : @Benjamin Scheffler: That's interesting and very good advice on life-long learning. Even or especially after being in the field for the many decades that you have experienced. I'm a graduate student of library science at Emporia State University (Kansas, USA) studying leadership and administration. One current course is discussing the history of technology changes. Good advice to remember not just technology processes change. Danke.

10:39:20 From Sharon Rawlins to Everyone : Yes, it is amazing!

10:40:00 From Melody Ezik to Everyone : A lovely library indeed! Fantastic resources for the public

10:41:27 From Madeleine Villalobos to All panelists : Maria you're job sounds amazing!

10:42:10 From Rebecca Smyth to All panelists : @Benjamin and @Maria, Germany and Russia seem to have a broader definition for who their services are for and who is the target of "young adult" departments as compared to the US. Can you clarify the age range of the users you design programs for?

10:44:23 From Mei Choong to Everyone : @Maria...thank you for your sound advice. All so on point.

10:44:28 From Juliet Smith to Everyone : Thank Maria, great advice!

10:44:45 From Tricia Dean to All panelists : Thank you Maria!

10:44:58 From Karen Van Drie to Everyone : Your English is fine!

10:45:12 From Heather Reinold to Everyone : Adorable

10:45:14 From Teresa Quick to All panelists : Great picture

10:45:17 From Marianne Martens to Everyone : Anton! :D

10:45:19 From Leah Phillips to Everyone : Agreed, Heather!

10:45:26 From Melody Ezik to Everyone : Awh n_n

10:46:42 From Rebecca Smyth to All panelists : @Anton You are brave and competent enough to give a presentation and do your job in a language other than your first one, that is never something to apologize for.

10:47:20 From Karen Van Drie to Everyone : How valuable you were to your national transition!

10:47:28 From Melody Ezik to Everyone : Very cool

10:47:29 From Juliet Smith to Everyone : Wow! Great story!

10:47:31 From Heather Reinold to Everyone : Love this history lesson! Thank you Anton and thank you to your family!

10:47:38 From Debbie Fulmer to Everyone : How to do marketing for library, also books on theory, methods and practice.

10:48:12 From Fidelia Gonzales to All panelists : Everyone's presentation has been amazing! I am learning so much today. Hello/Hola from Tulsa, Oklahoma

10:48:36 From Sami Espenschied to Everyone : @Anton Purnick: Our first library jobs were what we call Interlibrary Loan in USA. Do you love the researching? That hooked me. Digging like a ferret.

10:50:21 From Juliet Smith to Everyone : You are doing great, Anton!

10:50:25 From Karen Van Drie to Everyone : Your English is ochen xorosha

10:50:37 From Kelley Johnson to All panelists : You are doing fantastic! Great job!

10:51:30 From Rosa Haire to All panelists : Don't apologize, this is always humbling for Americans when a Norwegian, German, and two Russians can present in perfect English and most of us don't speak a second language with any fluency!

10:51:45 From Melody Ezik to Everyone : Neat!

10:51:50 From Karen Braeuler to Everyone : Very important, critical work for libraries

10:51:51 From Heather Reinold to Everyone : Love it! Archival work!

10:51:52 From Raychelle Steele to Rosa Haire and all panelists : Absolutely, Rosa!

10:52:15 From Sharon Rawlins to Everyone : LOL. I love the old typewriter and projector. Kids today have no idea what these are!

10:52:21 From Wayne Walters to All panelists : Excellent presentation(s) and all wonderful presenters!

10:53:28 From Juliet Smith to Everyone : I had typing classes in 8th grade!

10:53:30 From Raychelle Steele to Everyone : That's really cool! Love being able to chat for quick communication.

10:54:12 From Lisa Rand to Everyone : It's interesting to hear all of the speakers have mentioned the importance of being a good communicator and enjoying people, this foundation for any services we can provide to help young people.

10:54:32 From Sami Espenschied to Everyone : Typewriter. No they don't. Our college student library workers see our late 1980s typewriter and think it's ancient. LOL. I own a 1920s typewriter that types in italic and uses ribbon that you ink manually.

10:54:34 From Sharon Rawlins to Everyone : @Lisa. Agreed.

10:54:57 From Sami Espenschied to Everyone : @Lisa. Agree.

10:55:14 From Debbie Fulmer to Everyone : My 8th grade typing class used manual typewriters. I had really strong fingers!

10:55:26 From Sunkyung Roh to All panelists : good point!

10:56:10 From Tristan Mioduszeewski to Everyone : I've Been at our library for almost 25 years. Best place ever to work!

10:56:28 From Ludy Rueda to Everyone : All the panelists and their presentations are fantastic!!!! No matter where in the world a librarian is, the passion, need to serve, and willingness to share their experiences, are common denominators! THANK YOU!

10:56:39 From Hillary DeVincenzo to Everyone : Thank you Jorun, Benjamin, Maria, and Anton! This has certainly been the most wonderful webinar I have had the pleasure of being present for. Thank you for the work you do and for sharing your stories!

10:56:40 From Heather Reinold to Everyone : Great job to everyone!!!

10:56:42 From Tricia Dean to All panelists : Thank you Anton!

10:56:46 From Juliet Smith to Everyone : Thank you Anton.

10:56:51 From Teresa Quick to Everyone : Agreed Ludy!!

10:57:06 From elizabeth maggio to All panelists : thanks everyone...so interesting!

10:57:09 From Sharon Rawlins to Everyone : Thank you all. I totally agree with what Ludy said.

10:57:11 From Debbie Fulmer to Everyone : Cnacubo, Anton!

10:57:13 From Mei Choong to Everyone : Very fascinating presentation. Thanks Anton.

10:57:17 From Teresa Quick to Everyone : Wonderful presentations !!

10:57:18 From Melody Ezik to Everyone : Thank you all for those wonderful presentations

10:57:18 From erin wen to All panelists : Fascinating! Thank you all for sharing! I love your passion.

10:57:22 From Daniela Skokovic to All panelists : Thanks, Anton! Very enthusiastic

10:57:31 From Heather Reinold to Everyone : I have to leave for another meeting but I appreciate all of you and think you all did a wonderful job today! Thank you!

10:57:41 From Elly Serrano, ALSC Staff to Everyone : A recording, including chat and any available presentations, will be made available to all by tomorrow.

10:58:20 From Rebecca Smyth to All panelists : @Jorun, thank you for the clarification. I asked that question based on your description of having more animals than people!

10:58:53 From Rhoda Crowell to All panelists : Unfortunately I have to leave, Thank you all for your input. It's been fascinating

10:59:10 From Hannah Monson to Everyone : I love that Germany includes what we call "new adults" into YA programming! That transitional stage is so tough

10:59:22 From Tristan Mioduszewski to Everyone : Are you all doing virtual programs? Do you have a you tube channel? If you would like to see what we are up to search us on you tube: Killingly Public Library

10:59:28 From Melody Ezik to Everyone : Love that inclusion also

10:59:35 From Maria Crespo to All panelists : Wonderful presentations and thank you very much from New Jersey!

10:59:36 From Elly Serrano, ALSC Staff to Everyone : For any questions we are not able to get to live, we will compile them + answers in a document to have available with other session materials as well. :)

10:59:45 From MaryAnn Harris to All panelists : MaryAnn Harris, I think the USA libraries can provide more opportunities for young people to gain library work experience. Thank to everyone for the worthwhile presentations. MaryAnn KSU student

10:59:52 From Leah Phillips to Everyone : Wow!

10:59:59 From Marianne Martens to Everyone : That's incredible!

11:00:01 From Heike Schmidt to All panelists : Hahah

11:00:04 From Melody Ezik to Everyone : That's great

11:00:06 From Katie Wood to All panelists : That's wonderful!

11:00:17 From Lynne Wagner to Everyone : That is fascinating- I had NO idea that young adults were considered until that age.

11:00:19 From Sherrie Wallace to Everyone : Thank you all for this insight into the world of libraries!

11:00:29 From Rebecca Smyth to All panelists : @Benjamin and @Maria, thank you!

11:00:42 From Sami Espenschied to Everyone : Does anyone's library separate Teen from Young Adult?

11:01:07 From Samantha Griffis to All panelists : thank you all. I have to go but am looking forward to re-watching without distractions next time.

11:02:17 From Taraka Gilbert to Everyone : What successful programs are being provided for children? Do you find some more attended than others?

11:02:17 From Teresa Katz to Everyone : Thank you everyone, wonderful presentations today.

11:02:20 From Melanie Norberto to Everyone : To any of the panelists, what would you say your ratio of foreign materials compared to those published in your country?

11:02:49 From Raychelle Steele to Everyone : Thank you all who are able to stay, if you need to leave, please know that you will receive the recording to this video within the next few days.

11:03:23 From Shannon Craycraft to All panelists : I do enjoy the knowledge that I have gained through this conference so far! Thank you!

11:03:30 From Gina De alwis to Everyone : Great presentations Thank you for sharing and thank you to ALSC for organising the event.

11:03:34 From Dionne Silver to All panelists : Jorun and Benjamin said they partner with schools and school libraries. Maria and Anton, in Russia, do they also have these partnerships?

11:04:11 From Anton Purnick to Everyone :

<https://translate.google.com/translate?hl=&sl=ru&tl=en&u=http%3A%2F%2Fds.library.ru%2F>

11:04:25 From Tristan Mioduszezski to Everyone : Thank You for the wisdom.

11:04:34 From Heike Schmidt to All panelists : do you offer diversity themes? Is this an issue in your libraries?

11:05:16 From Raychelle Steele to Everyone : Please continue to post questions and anything that we cannot get to we will send to the panelists in case they have time to respond.

11:05:44 From Maria Crespo to All panelists : Any library offers foreign language classes for children and young adults and how many at the time

11:06:01 From Sami Espenschied to Everyone : Benjamin I love the deaf story hour especially virtual.

11:06:37 From MaryAnn Harris to Everyone : MaryAnn Harris, Great the storytelling for deaf children!

11:07:25 From Denise Butwill to All panelists : Is the storytelling done by staff, or professional storytellers?

11:07:29 From Tristan Mioduszezski to Everyone : :)

11:07:52 From Jasmine Cedeno to All panelists : @Benjamin, for the mentioned story hour-do you mean that someone just tells a story without a book, such as from memorization like a classic storyteller? If so, how are these presenters found?

11:08:28 From Madelaine Elam to Everyone : Phenomenal presentations! Thanks to each of the presenters and the hosts for their time and efforts! Great job! It is so interesting to learn about different libraries around the world, especially Youth/Children/YA services. Sending sunshine from Satellite Beach, Florida! Thanks y'all!!!

11:08:56 From Liz Hartnett to Everyone : Thank you! Fascinating information, and clearly we all share many values and goals in our work. :-)

11:09:03 From Karen Braeuler to Everyone : If only libraries could "rule" the world!

11:09:15 From Janice People to All panelists : Thank you for this very interesting program.

11:09:53 From Rebecca Smyth to All panelists : Thank you for hosting this event, so enlightening! And thank you for all the panelists for sharing their experience and expertise.

11:10:46 From Jasmine Cedeno to All panelists : This was a wonderful webinar for me, a new children's librarian! Thank you for sharing with us.

11:11:05 From Leah Phillips to Everyone : Thank you so much! I have to go, but I thoroughly enjoyed hearing from all of you and salut the great work you're doing!!

11:11:05 From Rosa Haire to All panelists : absolutely!

11:11:10 From Fidelia Gonzales to All panelists : Thank you for sharing what you all do! WE do share same goals and we are making this a better world all together. Tulsa, Ok USA :)

11:11:19 From Tristan Mioduszewski to Everyone : Absolutely

11:11:21 From elizabeth maggio to All panelists : I wonder what the job prospects are at these libraries...

11:11:37 From Sami Espenschied to Everyone : @Karen B: Shhh...we DO rule! LOL

11:12:08 From Fidelia Gonzales to All panelists : I am sorry I will need to leave now but I am very glad that I was able to watch today. Thanks again!

11:12:08 From Juliet Smith to Everyone : It is a great idea, libraries will have to be physical and digital. They definitely should do both!

11:12:17 From Marianne Martens to Everyone : From Benjamin: regarding the storytelling: professional storytellers tell fairy tales and storys - without a bokk, just from memory. The contact between the storyteller and the children is completely different from a reading event. We do this program for 12 years now and we cooperate with a great partner, a group of storytellers. The storytelling for deaf children is done by deaf people who volunteer, and it is organized by a very active colleague of mine.

11:12:19 From Daniela Skokovic to All panelists : agree, Jorun

11:12:20 From Raychelle Steele to Everyone : @marita, I see you have your hand raised...If you would like to ask a question, please share in the chat.

11:12:21 From Rosa Haire to All panelists : We're incorporating more outdoor seating at my library to invite the community back, and have l nperson programming again (safely)

11:13:41 From Raychelle Steele to Everyone : We are doing the same, Rosa. =)

11:13:52 From Sami Espenschied to Everyone : Lliving library. Very cool!

11:13:56 From Melody Ezik to Everyone : Wow, a living library

11:13:57 From Raychelle Steele to Everyone : That's really neat, Benjamin!

11:14:11 From Sharon Rawlins to Everyone : Benjamin, that's fantastic.

11:14:14 From Katie Wood to All panelists : Living Library is such a fantastic concept!

11:14:23 From elizabeth maggio to All panelists : I'm go glad I was able to see this presentation...thanks!

11:14:28 From Tristan Mioduszewski to Everyone : Can you explain a little more? Living Library.

11:14:34 From Taraka Gilbert to Everyone : I have the same "Wow" for living library too!

11:14:48 From Denise Butwill to All panelists : Thank you Benjamin for your reply about your storytelling programs. With appreciation from Denise is Woodbury, Connecticut, USA

11:15:01 From Marianne Martens to Everyone : <https://humanlibrary.org/about/>

11:15:09 From Barb Bourgoine to Everyone : I believe Toronto Canada had a great article on living library

11:15:10 From Sami Espenschied to Everyone : Wow!

11:15:47 From Benjamin Scheffler to All panelists : Living Library is a event concept not unique at my library. And it depends of course on volunteers who are willing to share their life.

11:15:49 From Trish Saylor to All panelists : Librarians are wonderful people and what a great career!

11:16:05 From Daniela Skokovic to All panelists : Living Library is really great when you want to work with marginalized groups

11:18:15 From Denise Butwill to All panelists : For screen time awareness week, we removed our computers in the children's department and replace them with old technology/ light-brite, typewriter/ sewing machines/puzzles. It was a big hit and parents asked us to leave it that way ;)

11:18:31 From Marianne Martens to Everyone : How fun @Denise!

11:18:35 From Juliet Smith to Everyone : Thank you for all you information panel speakers. So interesting to see all of the different devices and programs now available in libraries across the World! I have to go, thank you for the great presentations!
