

How do I get some money?

We hear you'd like some library-related moolah. We may be able to help!

Are you looking for money for your workplace?

We'll have a separate infographic about this shortly.

Check back soon!

Great! Are you a member of ALSC?

No problem! We may still be able to help.

Quick question: Do you identify as BIPOC?

ALSC has a few BIPOC scholarships that might be up your alley!

ALSC Equity Fellowship

Spectrum Scholarship

There are funding opportunities for everyone!

Do you need more than $500?

Are you looking for money for a committee, taskforce or division-wide proposal?

ALSC has scholarships for library school students!

Frederic G. Melcher Scholarship

Bound to Stay Bound Book Scholarship

To get the most benefits from ALSC, consider becoming a member!

Do you need it this fiscal year? (Before the end of August?)

No problem! Depending on your needs, complete one of the following:

Committee Reimbursement Form

Committee Operational Funds

If you're looking for help renewing your membership:

ALA ReMember Fund

If you're going to your first conference:

Penguin Random House Young Readers Group Award

Contact the Budget Committee. Funding will need to come from the Friends of ALSC account, if approved.

Complete a Board Action Request Form. See the form for more info!