Please review the terms of the agreement carefully, fill out the information below and sign. Make a copy for your records.

Recording Permission: Please indicate below whether you give LITA the right to audio record your presentation and to reproduce for webcasting and/or CD-ROM as deemed appropriate for educational purposes by LITA. If you grant this, it is important for us to confirm that we have the full right to distribute the program contents. For this reason, your permission will constitute a warranty that all of your material which will be included on the recording is your own original work, that it does not violate any copyright or other proprietary rights of others, and that it is factually accurate, contains no libelous matter, and that you assign the American Library Association the copyright therein for purposes of making and distributing the recording. This copyright will specifically not prevent you from presenting or publishing the same speech or using portions thereof as you choose.
