

Join the conversation

April 21, 2022
11am PT / 1pm CT

Small, Rural, and Tribal
Libraries as Community
Anchors

Jonna C. Paden (Acoma/Laguna Pueblo)
Librarian and Archivist

Allison Waukau (Menominee/Navajo)
Community Outreach

ALA Connect Live: April 2022 – Small, Rural, and Tribal Libraries as Community Anchors

Upcoming Events

- Register for ALA Annual Conference, June 23 – 28, Washington, DC
 - ALA Annual Conference – Digital Experience

Small, Rural, and Tribal Libraries

- Organizations & Institutions
 - American Indian Library Association
 - Association of Tribal Archives, Libraries, and Museums
 - New Mexico Library Association
- Resources & Tools
 - Indian Pueblo Cultural Center – New Mexico’s Native Libraries
 - USDA Rural Libraries Resources
 - USDA Telecom Programs
 - USDA Rural Community Development Initiative Grants
 - TRAILS Tribal Library Procedures Manual “The TRAILS Tribal Library Procedures Manual is currently undergoing revisions by the American Indian Library Association (AILA) and the ALA Rural, Native, and Tribal Libraries of All Kinds Committee (RNTLOAK) towards a new 4th Edition”
 - American Indians in Children’s Literature
- Blogs & Newsletters
 - Indigenous Connections and Collections – the Library Blog (Joana Paden’s library blog)
 - Programming Librarian eNewsletter

Censorship and Intellectual Freedom

- Unite Against Book Bans
- ALA’s Fight Censorship Page
- Freedom to Read Foundation - Learn more and donate
- Merritt Fund - ALA's fund dedicated to support librarians