

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS the Social Responsibilities Round Table-Junior Members Round Table Child Care Center at the 1972 American Library Association Conference was satisfactory to all parents, children and staff who participated this year and

WHEREAS there have been indications from both users and non-users of the center that availability of child care facilitates membership participation in conference activities and

WHEREAS it is becoming customary for other professional associations to provide such service to their memberships, therefore

BE IT RESOLVED that the membership of the American Library Association go on record in support of child care service at future conferences and urge American Library Association units and staff to cooperate with Junior Members Round Table and Social Responsibilities Round Table in providing this service at the June 1973 conference.

PRESIDENT DOMS: Is there a second?

[The motion was duly seconded.]

PRESIDENT DOMS: It has been moved and seconded that this Membership Proposal No. 9 be tabled. It is not debatable matter now.

Those in favor of tabling please say "aye;" those opposed. We will take a standing vote.

Those in favor of tabling please rise. Please be seated. Those opposed please rise. The motion to table carried.

 The next on your agenda concerns Child Care Center Service at Conferences. It is Membership Proposal No. 10. It is presented by the Social Responsibilities Round Table and the Junior Members Round Table, and I recognize the person at Microphone No. 3.

MRS. PATSY WILLEY: I am a new Council member and I represent the Junior Members Round Table. I am the mother.

[Laughter and Applause]

I move that we accept this proposal for child care.

PRESIDENT DOMS: It has been moved that this resolution for Child Care Service at Conferences be adopted. Is there a second?

[The motion was duly seconded.]

PRESIDENT DOMS: It is severally seconded by three fathers, I believe. [Laughter]

Is there discussion?

As a matter of personal privilege, perhaps you would allow your Chairman to indicate that his wife spent some time at the center yesterday and thought it was just a wonderful idea. Not being cared for, by taking care of kids. [Laughter]

Those in favor of the resolution -- I am sorry. Microphone No. 2.

MRS. NANCY SODERMAN: I am a student member. I just want to say I think it might be too limiting since it doesn't allow for care at all future conventions, and that ought to be a consideration.

PRESIDENT DOMS: Let us look carefully at the resolution and see what it does say.

It does indicate future conferences. That is in Line 4 from the bottom. Does that answer your concern?

MRS. SODERMAN: The last line.

PRESIDENT DOMS: The fourth line up from the bottom. "Future conferences and urge the American Library Association units and staff to cooperate." I think this does make provision for future conferences unless we have got different resolutions.

MRS. PELLOWSKI [Ohio]: I think this may clarify it. My understanding is that JMRT and SRRT have said they will handle it through the June 1973 Conference, but they are hoping that there will be a more continuing plan ready by the next conference. Am I right, Junior Members?

[They nodded in the affirmative.]

PRESIDENT DOMS: Are you ready for the question?

MRS. PATSY WILLEY: We would be very happy to just simply strike the last few words and insert a period after "service" and that would kind of eliminate the June 1973, and if the Association wished to contribute financial support at the 1973 conference, I am sure that we would be happy to accept it.

PRESIDENT DOMS: Thank you very much. I take it that was in the form of a motion to amend the resolution.

MRS. WILLEY: Yes.

PRESIDENT DOMS: Is there a second?

[The motion was duly seconded.]

PRESIDENT DOMS: It has been moved and seconded that the resolution be amended by striking the last five words "at the June 1973 Conference."

Is there discussion of the amendment?

Those in favor of the amendment will please say "aye;" those opposed. It is carried.

Now we will return to the amended resolution.

Those in favor of the resolution as amended please say "aye;" opposed. So voted.

That was no mother of the year. [Laughter]

We still have pending Membership Proposals No. 5, No. 6 and No. 7, and I wonder if you would be willing to permit me to ask Laura Hex if she feels that the statement from the Task Force on Women is so concise and so well stated that she might be able to proceed without the printed piece. Microphone No. 8.

MISS LAURIE NOVAK [Member]: I would like to
