Resolution on Workplace Speech

WHEREAS the American Library Association is firmly committed to freedom of expression (Policy 53.1.12); and

WHEREAS the library is an institution that welcomes and promotes the expression of all points of view; and

WHEREAS library staff are uniquely positioned to provide guidance on library policy issues that is informed by their experience and education; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED that ALA Council amend Policy 54 (Library Personnel Practices) by adding:

54.21 Workplace Speech

Libraries should encourage discussion ~~both among librarians and library workers~~ ^{including} ~~and with members of the library's administration~~ of non-confidential professional and policy matters about the operation of the library and matters of public concern within the framework of applicable laws.
