Notes: Rizal Provincial Library is a public library operated by the Provincial Government of Rizal Province, Philippines. Joining the Sister Library program of ALA will positively and tremendously uplift the operations of the library as the agent of change for community development. Communication will be enhanced thereby greater participation will be drawn from different segments of the society leading to community development and better lives of the people.

From the knowledge and information to be acquired in Sister City, the RPL will be able to design programs and plans appropriate to the characteristics and demography of our localities and will ensure that such program will be a success when implemented.
