

LIRT Innovation in Instruction Award

Nomination Sheet

Sponsored by the ALA Library Instruction Round Table (LIRT)

The Innovation in Instruction Award is given in recognition of a library's contributions to the development, advancement, and support of information literacy and instruction in any type of library.

Library Nominee Information

Library Name:

Institution:

Address:

Phone number:

Email Address:

Nominator Information (if not self-nominating)

Name:

Title:

Institution:

Address:

Phone number:

Email Address:

Nomination Materials Checklist

- Completed nomination sheet

- Letter from the nominator addressing the award criteria, providing concrete examples. Please refer to the rubric on the LIRT Awards website for evaluation criteria:
<http://www.ala.org/rt/lirt/innovation-in-instruction-award>

- Two letters of support

- Optional: Supporting materials demonstrating the library's contributions to information literacy

Submission Details

Send all LIRT Innovation in Instruction Award nomination materials by January 15, 2025:

Monica Latham
Chair, Innovation in Instruction subcommittee
monica.latham@colostate.edu

Notification of Award

Award recipients will be notified no later than February 15, 2025. The award will be presented at the 2025 ALA Annual Conference.