Hello Jen and Com Studies Committee Colleagues

ACRL-EBSS Communications Studies Committee
Meeting Agenda
Tuesday Sep 20, 2022 · 12pm – 1pm (Eastern Time - New York)
https://maine.zoom.us/j/83358928956.

1. meet Christina face to face (via Zoom) :)
2. share updates on our ACRL proposal
3. follow up on any outstanding work from our journalism framework document, like the example assignments Michael's student pulled together (attached). We discussed possibly linking this, or some version of it, to our LibGuide with the companion document, emphasizing that this is a sampling of existing resources that people might use to inspire their own thinking when it comes to teaching with the Journalism companion document to the Framework.
4. consider next steps for our committee work this year

Companion Guide Review Status

EBSS Leadership Approved the Companion Document on August 3rd!
Next Steps for our Companion Document and Guide https://acrl.libguides.com/ed:

1. Submit to ILFSC for review along with a completed "Transmittal Sheet for Draft Standards and Guidelines"
    a. IFE Committee Members: Please review the Transmittal Sheet to ensure it is complete. Add any listservs or groups with whom you shared invitations to our events or the survey.

    After approval is given, ILFSC will forward the document and the transmittal sheet to the ACRL Standards Committee (SC). After the document is approved by the SC, they will submit the document and a final recommendation to the ACRL Board for its action. Once ACRL Board approves, publish and announce Framework Companion Documents officially.

    We may have revisions to respond to with each review.
