

The Third Congress on Professional Education: Focus on Library Support Staff Issues

EXPECTATIONS AND RESPONSIBILITIES FOR DELEGATES

Those who participate in The Third Congress on Professional Education: Focus on Library Support Staff should come to the Congress with:

- an ability to define, communicate, and articulate issues from constituency regarding library support staff.
- the willingness to be open to the ideas of others.
- the willingness to be open to innovative ways of doing things.
- an ability to share creative solutions/action oriented.
- an ability to build consensus.
- a passion for the issues of concern to library support staff.
- an ability to keep the big picture in focus.
- a thoroughness of preparation, including the reading of all background materials and an understanding of the issues important to the constituent group represented.

Expectations:

Further, those who participate should:

- commit their time and energy for participation in the full Congress.
- commit to action beyond the Congress.

Costs:

A cost-sharing model will be used for the Congress.

The Congress will provide:

- free registration and Congress materials.
- all meals during the Congress.
- shuttle bus service twice daily between hotel and College of DuPage.

Delegates (or their constituent groups) are responsible for:

- transportation.
- lodging (special Congress rate of $76/night + tax).