Had a big life change?

You may be able to sign up for health insurance with a Special Enrollment Period.

What is a Special Enrollment Period?

A Special Enrollment Period is a time, other than Open Enrollment, when you can sign up for health insurance through HealthCare.gov. You only get a Special Enrollment Period if you lose your insurance or experience a major life change.

- If you lose your insurance, such as through a work lay-off or turning 26 and aging off your parent's plan, you have 60 days before or after your coverage ends to enroll on HealthCare.gov.
- If you experience a major life change, you have 60 days after the event to enroll in a health plan.

Which major life changes qualify?

Some of the most common life changes are:

- Moving to a new zip code or county
- Getting married or divorced
- Having a baby, adopting or becoming a foster parent
- Becoming a U.S. citizen or getting a green card
