

RUSA BRASS AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN BUSINESS LIBRARIANSHIP

Established in 1989, the Award for Excellence in Business Librarianship presents a citation and $3,000* cash award to an individual who has made a significant contribution to business librarianship.

Applicants for this award will be evaluated based on their contribution to the field of business librarianship. These contributions may include, but are not limited to: authorship of a seminal book or articles in business librarianship; development of an imaginative and successful program centered around business within a library; teaching business librarianship in a particularly creative and substantive manner; and displaying strong leadership in a professional association geared to business librarianship.

*Monetary award amounts are subject to change without notice and are contingent upon donor funding supplied at the time the award is presented.
